

Code	Subject Title	Cr. Hrs	Semester
ENG-321	Analytical Study of English Literature	3	V
Year	Discipline
3	Islamic Education

To draw attention of students towards meaningful and careful readings of various English texts. Through the comprehensive reading of selected texts, students will be able to analyze the works semantically and thematically. An in-depth perusal of text not only provides them the various means of comprehension but also educate them how to interpret text in different social and religious domains.

Methodology:

Students will be given selected passages and topics from prescribed books in advance to read at home and then a dynamic discussion will be conducted in the classroom. In order to improve their writing skill, students will be asked to read text critically and then explain it in their own words. Teacher will appreciate them at all stages of writing practices.

Contents of Course:

- (i) Chapter 3: The conception of God and the meaning of prayer
Chapter 7: is religion Possible?
by Allama Iqbal
- (ii) Introduction - summary, themes of the following novels
Lord of the Flies and the Sun also Rises
- (iii) Chapter 1: The philosophical sources of western materialism
Chapter 2: Modern Philosophy
By Maryum Jameela (Islam and Modernism)
- (iv) Brief Introduction of all chapters of (Islam at the Crossroads) by Maryum Jameela

Prescribed and Recommended Books:

- (i) Islam at the crossroads by Muhammad Asad
- (ii) Reconstruction of religious thoughts in Islam by Allama Iqbal
- (iii) Islam and modernism by Maryum Mameela
- (iv) Lord of the Flies by William Golding
- (v) The Sun also Rises by Ernest Hemingway
- (vi) History of English Literature (various sources)