

PAKISTAN STUDIES

(2+0 Cr. Hr.)

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- Develop vision of historical perspective, government, politics, contemporary Pakistan, ideological background of Pakistan.
- Study the process of governance, national development, issues arising in the modern age and posing challenges to Pakistan.

COURSE CONTENTS:

- I. Pakistan Movement: Historical and Ideological Perspective
 - b. Muslim Revivalist Movements in India.
 - c. The Two Nation Theory: From Sir Syed Ahmed Khan to Allam Iqbal
 - d. Quaid-i-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah and the Struggle for Creation of Pakistan: Early Challenges
- ii. Land and People of Pakistan
 - a. Physical Features and Geo Strategic Location of Pakistan
 - b. Culture and Traditions: Regional Dimensions
 - c. Social Issues and Challenges to Pakistan
- iii. History and Politics in Pakistan (1947-2008)
 - a. Early Parliamentary Phase
 - b. Ayub and Yahya's Era
 - c. Democratic Era (1971-1977)
 - d. Zia Era (1977-1988)
 - e. Civil Rule (1988-1999)
 - f. Musharraf Era (1999-2008)
- iv. Contemporary Pakistan
 - a. The Constitution of 1973: Salient Features
 - b. Foreign policy and Relations with neighboring Countries
 - c. Salient Features of the Economy, Agriculture and Industry, National resources

RECOMMENDED BOOKS

1. Hayes, L. D. (2016). The Islamic State in the Post-Modern World: The Political Experience of Pakistan. Routledge.
2. McCartney, M. (2015). Labeling the State in Contemporary Pakistan and the Scholarship of Will-o-the-Wisp.
3. Anwar, N. (2014). Infrastructure redux: Crisis, progress in industrial Pakistan & beyond. Springer.
4. Daniel, D. C., & Hayes, B. C. (Eds.). (2016). Beyond traditional peacekeeping. Springer.

5. Zamindar, V. (2014). Book Review: Navida Khan, ed. 2010. Beyond Crisis: Re-evaluating Pakistan.
6. Kazimi, M. R. (2009). A Concise History of Pakistan, Oxford University Press