SECTION-B

Q.5 Read the passage carefully and answer the questions in your own words.

Good governance is an indeterminate term used in international development literature to describe how public institutions conduct public affairs and manage public resources. Many countries of the world have failed miserably despite having enough resources to cater their needs. Governance is "the process of decision-making and the process by which decisions are implemented (or not implemented)".

The War on Terror has had colossal and far reaching implications for Pakistan in numerous ways. Pakistan has suffered and continues to suffer socially, economically, politically and militarily. The ongoing War on Terror has cost Pakistan dearly in terms of social disruption and upheaval. Millions of people have been displaced. The whole attention of the government in Pakistan is towards controlling various sorts of terrorism. Very naturally, the idea of good governance remains in jeopardy in Pakistan.

Q. # 1: What is governance? (2)

Q. # 2: How has war on terror affected Pakistan? (2)

Q. # 3: Why is the idea of good governance in danger in Pakistan? (2)

Q. # 4: Suggest a suitable title and write a précis of the above passage. (9)

SECTION-B

- Q.5. Read the passage carefully and answer the questions in your own words. (15)

Space travel is by far the most expensive type of exploration ever undertaken by man. The vast expenditure of money and human effort now being devoted to projects for putting man into space might well be applied to ends more practically useful and more conducive to human happiness. It is a strange world in which tens of millions of pounds are spent to give one man a ride round the earth at thousands of miles an hour, while beneath him in his orbit live millions for whom life is a daily struggle to win a few coins to buy their daily struggle. The money and effort that go into the development and construction of a single type of space rocket would be more than suffice to rid several countries only two of the diseases that medical science has conquered but which still persist in the world devoted to eradication. Why should the richer countries of the world be pouring their resources into space when poverty and disease on the earth are crying out for relief? One could give a cynical answer to this question and assert that man's expensive adventures into space are merely the by-products of the struggle between great powers for prestige and possible military advantage.

Questions: -

1. Why is it a strange world?
 2. Why do malaria and typhoid still exist in the world?
 3. Why is man pouring his resources into space?
 4. Explain the meanings of the following words: (a) Scourge (b) Eradication
 5. Suggest a suitable title for the passage.
 6. Make a summary of the passage.

- (i) Impact of CPEC on Pakistan's Economy
 - (ii) How to control inflation
 - (iii) Role of Electronic Media in the society
- Q.8. Translate into English: (10)

اللہ تعالیٰ نے پاکستان کو معدنی دولت سے مالا مال کیا ہے۔ ضرورت اس امر کی ہے کہ ہم ان معدنیات کو کان کنی کے ذریعے زمین سے باہر نکال کر ان سے مصنوعات بنائیں اور عالمی منڈیوں میں بیچ کر زر مبادلہ کمائیں۔ اسی طرح زرعی اجناس کو برآمد کرنے کی بجائے ان سے مصنوعات تیار کر کے برآمد کیا جائے تاکہ زیادہ قیمت وصول ہو اور روزگار کے مواقع بھی بڑھ سکیں مگر مصنوعات تیار کرتے وقت عالمی معیار، انفرادیت اور جدت کو بھی مد نظر رکھنا ہو گا تاکہ ہم خود انحصاری حاصل کر کے اپنے پیروں پر کھڑے ہو جائیں۔ معاشی طور پر مضبوط اور خوشحال پاکستان ہی جناح اور اقبال کے نظریہ خودداری کی تعبیر ہے۔

SECTION-B

Q.5 Read the passage carefully and answer the questions in your own words.

The term "human rights" is a relatively modern invention. It covers under its umbrella three different types of rights: (i) the fundamental freedoms or classical civil liberties, (ii) ethnic and religious rights and (iii) socio-economic rights. Some constitutions have enumerated the first or the first and the second and attempted to set up judicial enforcement of such rights. The third category has not been stated in a constitution in an enforceable form, but some constitutions refer to them as directive principles of state policy.

Just after the World War II, it was realized that citizens of many countries lived under the control of tyrants, having no recourse other than war to relieve inhuman treatment given to them. Unless some way was found to provide justice to these people, they could revolt and become the catalyst for another wide-scale war including the Nuclear war.

- 3- Traffic Jams
- 4- Folk Songs of the Punjab
- 5- Hostel Life

Q: 2. Read the following passage and answer the questions at the end. The answer must be in your own words. (25)

A university must do more than merely provide as a high class professional apprenticeship. It does not matter in the least what a student's specialized line happens to be; the fact that he is specialist cannot excuse him from his responsibilities as a man. Students must emerge as complete human beings capable of taking their proper place in society as a credit to their universities both for their professional knowledge and as men. There is no conflict between the two disciplines here. Nobody can be termed a complete man who has no knowledge of what science has to teach, and equally, human obligations cannot not be escaped on the ground of being a specialized scientists or technologist. By human obligations, I mean ability to behave in a reasonable way to observe restraints so that restraints do not have to be imposed to be able to think clearly and objectively so that false doctrines cannot gain ground.

Questions:

- 1- What is the duty of a university?
- 2- Who is a complete man?
- 3- What does the writer mean by human obligations?
- 4- What are your views regarding university education?
- 5- How could false doctrine be fought back?
