APPENDIX ‘B’

(Syllabi and Courses of Reading)

Paper I

Compulsory English I: Language in Use.

Aims:
1. To develop the ability to communicate effectively
2. To enable the students to read effectively and independently any intermediate level text
3. To make the experience of learning English more meaningful and enjoyable
4. To enable the students to use grammar and language structure in context

Objectives: (Contents)

A: Listening and Speaking Skills*
To develop the ability to:
- Understand and use English to express ideas and opinions related to students’ real life experiences inside and outside the classroom
- Give reasons (Substantiating) justifying their view
- Understand and use signal markers
B: Reading comprehension skills
To enable the students to read a text to:
- Identify main ideas/topic sentences
- Find specific information quickly
- Distinguish between relevant and irrelevant information according to purpose for reading
- Recognize and interpret cohesive devices
- Distinguish between fact and opinion

C: Vocabulary Building Skills
To enable the students to:
- Guess the meanings of unfamiliar words using context clues
- Use word formation rules for enhancing vocabulary
- Use the dictionary for finding out meanings and use of unfamiliar words

D: Writing Skills
To enable students to write descriptive, narrative and argumentative texts with and without stimulus input

E: Grammar in context
- Tenses: meaning & use
- Modals
- Use of active and passive voice

Listening and Speaking skills will be assessed informally only using formative assessment methods till such time that facilities are available for testing these skills more formally.

Methodology
The focus will be on teaching of language skills rather than content using a variety of techniques such as guided silent reading, communication tasks etc. Moreover, a process approach will be taken for teaching writing skills with a focus on composing, editing and revising drafts both individually and with peer and tutor support.

Recommended reading:

English Language II (Compulsory): Academic Reading and Writing.

Aims:
To enable the students to:
- Read the lines (literal understanding of text), read between the lines (to interpret text) and red beyond the lines (to assimilate, integrate knowledge etc.)
- Write well organized academic texts including examination answers with topic/thesis statement/supporting details
- Write argumentative essays and course assignments

Reading and Critical Thinking
1. Read academic texts effectively by:
- Using appropriate strategies for extracting information and salient points
- According to a given purpose
- Identifying the main points supporting details, conclusions in a text of intermediate level
• Identifying the writer’s intent such as cause and effect, reasons, comparison and contrast, exemplification
• Interpreting charts and diagrams
• Making appropriate notes using strategies such as mind maps, tables, lists, graphs.
• Reading and carrying out instructions for tasks, assignments and examination questions
2. Enhance academic vocabulary using skills learnt in Compulsory English I course
3. Acquire efficient dictionary skills such as locating guide words, entry words, choosing appropriate definition, and identifying pronunciation through pronunciation key, identifying part of speech, identifying syllable division and stress patterns

Writing Academic Texts

Students will be able to:

1. Plan their writing: identify audience, purpose and message (content)
2. Collect information in various forms such as mind maps, tables. Charts, lists
3. Order information such as:
   • Chronology for a narrative
   • Stages of a process
   • From general to specific and vice versa
   • From most important to least important
   • Advantages and disadvantages
   • Comparison and contrast
   • Problem solution pattern
4. Write argumentative and descriptive forms of writing using different methods of developing ideas like listing, comparison, and contrast, cause and effect, for and against
   • Write good topic and supporting sentences and effective conclusions
   • Use appropriate cohesive devices such as reference words and signal markers
5. Redraft Checking content, structure and language, edit and proof read.

Grammar in Context
• Phrase, clause and sentence structure
• Combining sentences
• Reported Speech

Methodology
In this curriculum, students will be encouraged to become independent and efficient readers using appropriate skills and strategies for reading and comprehending texts at intermediate level. Moreover, writing is approached as a process. The students will be provided opportunities to write clearly in genres appropriate to their disciplines.

Paper IV  Textile Design Essential

Textile Design Essential:

Aims and objectives:

This course is an extension of textile design fundamentals to build concepts for surface decoration through repeat, different rendering, techniques, use of textures, layers and movement in design, creation of motive based complex textiles design, repeatable thematic design.

Methodology:

Students will learn design development techniques through story and mood boards and create complex thematic textile designs for apparel and interior on paper. The students will be given weekly assignments and will be working under supervision of the instructor throughout the week. Simplification and exaggeration.

Suggested readings:

Exhibition of work

2D Textile Rendering:
Aims and objectives:
In this course the students will learn various rendering techniques, textures and color surface treatments techniques for 2D textile print design on paper. Experimentation, Personal expression and creativity would be highly stressed.
Methodology:
Students will learn design development techniques through story and mood boards and create complex thematic textile designs for apparel and interior on paper. The students will be given weekly assignments and will be working under supervision of the instructor throughout the week.
Suggested readings:

Experimental Weaving:
Aims and Objective:
This studio course explore the sculptural and design potential for low tech, off loom processes which includes experimentation with different yarns, fabrics using coiling plafting, knotting and crochet techniques in order to create textile products based on off loom weaving.
Methodology:
The students will be given weekly lectures, demonstration and assignments on hand loom weaving. Through workshops and laboratory demonstration the students will learn the techniques. Students will be made familiar with the different methods of weaving performed in various parts by multimedia presentations.

Contemporary Pakistani Artist

Introduction

The first generation of Pakistani artists that studied at Fine Art Department of Punjab University and at Mayo School of Art (Now NCA), established itself in recognition and style in years to come. This generation produced many inimitable artists who were to contribute a lot in the contemporary development of Pakistani Art. In and after 1970, the world was on the go in all walks of life from Science and Technology to Arts and Literature whereas post Colonial influences were getting vanished and neo theories like Communism and socialism were getting popular rapidly. At that juncture of time, many Pakistani Artists emerged and excelled with their unique technique, modern concepts and ultimate perception. Shakir Ali, Sadequain, Shamza, Ali Imam, Moyene Najmi, Khalid Iqbal, Colin David, Bashir Mirza and Shahid Sajjad were few artists who bridged the early period of Pakistani art to the modern era. Later on Iqbal Hussain, Zulqarnain Haider, Mehr Afroz, Chulam Rasoo, Mashkoor Raza, Jamil Naqsh, and many others worked to develop and encourage the modern and contemporary wisdom in the arts of Pakistan. While in the most recent times, Jamil Baloch, Colin David, Saeed Akhtar, Zubida Javed, Rahat Masud, Kaleem Khan, Ahmad Khan, Ali Azmat, mughees Riaz and R.M. Naeem with many others are doing their best in the capacity of contemporary Pakistani Art.

Aim and Objective

This course will enable students to learn about the modern and contemporary Pakistani Art through in depth study of Contemporary Pakistani Artists.
