GUIDELINES FOR MPhil/PHD WRITTEN TEST 2021

- 1: The written test for MPhil/PhD carries a total weightage of 40 Marks. The pass percentage for MPhil applicants is 50% and for applicants in PhD is 70%.
- 2: The written test has two parts: Objective and Subjective
  - a) The objective part comprises 10 marks and it is compulsory. The MCQs are based on GRE (Subject type+Analytical type).
  - b) The subjective type comprises 30 marks. It is based on the subject of English Literature. The subjective test is set in a way to determine an applicant's flair, sensibility, critical tenacity, and ability of handling diverse literary genres and texts. Well-structured and conceptually clear answers will be rewarded.
