

PREFACE

Iqbal Memorial Lectures are intended to pay tribute to the memory of Allama Muhammad Iqbal, the philosopher-poet of Pakistan and a distinguished alumnus of this University. The lectures are delivered every year by some eminent scholar from within or outside of Pakistan on any theme in which the Allama evinced direct or indirect interest. Lectures delivered till 1981 were published in book form by the University on the occasion of its centenary celebrations in 1982. Those delivered after that till the year 1991 are now being printed as volume II.

I hope that besides helping to get the lectures permanently preserved, this attempt will prove to be a very useful addition to the already existing literature on Iqbal studies.

I take this opportunity to thank the Research Society of Pakistan, and specially its capable Director Dr. A. Shakoor Ahsan, who readily agreed to print this book on our request.
