Call for Paper

Bulletin of Education and Research (BER) is the Research Journal of the Institute of Education and Research (IER), University of the Punjab, Lahore published since 1961. It is the first Research Journal in the discipline of Education which is recognized by the Higher Education Commission (HEC), Pakistan in 'Y' category. It is published quarterly. All articles/contributions submitted to the BER are blind reviewed by a panel of reviewers.

In the BER we publish reviews, critiques, theoretical and conceptual articles, research that contribute to understand issues, problems, developments and research concerning various aspects of education particularly in Pakistani context. From Meta analysis of studies probing the effectiveness of teaching methods to historical examinations of textbook standards, the journal provides insightful explorations of new educational concepts and educational practices. It is preferred to publish articles whose primary purpose is to report the methods and result of an empirical study.

The forthcoming issue of the Bulletin is going to be published soon. You are invited to contribute your research article.

Send your article with the following specification:

1. Manuscripts must have an abstract of 150-200 words and should be typed on 6 x 9 inch white paper, upper and lower case, double spaced in entirety, with 1 inch margins on all sides. The font size should be 12 for running text, 13 point for headings and 14 for main headings. Subheadings should be at reasonable intervals to break the monotony of lengthy text. Word to be set in italics not underlined. Abbreviations and acronyms should be spelled out at first mention unless they are well known to the readers (e.g., IQ needs no explanation). Formatting and citation should be according to APA Manual (6th edition).
2. A soft copy of an article in Microsoft Word should be sent to Secretary Editorial Board through email.
