Pakistan Journal of Library & Information Science (PJLIS)

The Department of Library and Information Science, University of the Punjab, Lahore publishes Pakistan Journal of Library and Information Science on an annual basis, likely to become biannual. The PJLIS is a refereed scholarly journal committed to publish original and scholarly critiques, theoretical, conceptual and research articles that contribute to the understanding of issues and problems in all areas of librarianship and information science at local, national and international level.

Ideas and views expressed in the papers published in PJLIS is the sole responsibility of the author. It does not necessarily reflect opinion/policy of the Department or Editorial Advisory Board.

Authors will get two copies of the Journal.

Reviewing Process
After a preliminary editorial review, articles are sent to two referees for blind review. Authors are informed about comments of the referees and requested to revise the article accordingly, if required. Authors will get two copies of the Journal.

Indexing and Abstracting
The journal is included in the EBSCO's database LISTA.
Call for Papers

Dear ones:
You are encouraged to send your papers for the next issue. Following section gives an overview of the journal and its policy for your kind information.

Instructions to Authors
All material should be sent exclusively to the PJLIS. Work which has already been reported in a published paper or is described in a paper sent or accepted elsewhere for publication should not be submitted.

Paper submission: Manuscripts must be typed in font 12 on one side of single A4 or letter size, white, good quality paper, double-spaced throughout, including the reference section. One hard copy of a manuscript, in addition to an electronic version by email at pjlis@yahoo.com, must be submitted. Length of the manuscript should not exceed more than 15 pages including references (approximately 5000 words). Contributor’s name, telephone, fax numbers and email address must be given only on the cover page of manuscript.

Abstract: Papers must be accompanied by an abstract not exceeding 100-150 words along with maximum of five keywords. It should be embedded in simple language setting forth the objectives of the study and the results achieved.
