A - BY UNIVERSITY TEACHERS

Part I

PRELIMINARY

1. These Statutes may be called "Elections for membership of the Senate, Syndicate and Academic Council of the University of the Punjab by the University Teachers Statutes".

2. (1) In these Statutes, unless a different intention appears from the subject or the context, the following expressions shall have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say,

   (a) "Act" means the University of the Punjab Act, 1973.

   (b) "Senate", "Syndicate" and "Academic Council" means the Senate, Syndicate and Academic Council of the University of the Punjab.

   (c) "Teachers" means Professors, Associate Professors, Assistant Professors and Lecturers engaged whole-time by the University.

   (d) "Electoral Rolls" means the Electoral Rolls prepared and maintained under Part II of these Statutes.

   (e) "Elector" means any person whose name is borne on the Electoral Rolls prepared and maintained under Part II of these Statutes.

(2) All expressions used in these Statutes and defined or used in the Act shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in the Act.

Part II

PREPARATION OF ELECTORAL ROLLS

3. In pursuance of [clause (xii) of sub-section (1) of section 23 clause, (ix) of sub-section (1) of section 25 and clauses (ix) and (x) of sub-section (1) of section 27 of the Act], the Registrar shall prepare and maintain a list of all the University Teachers, which shall contain their respective dates of appointment as well as the fact whether each such teacher is a Professor, Associate Professor, Assistant Professor or Lecturer and whether any of them is Chairman of University Teaching Department. The names of those who are on study leave, duty leave or leave without pay or on deputation with the Government shall not be included in this list.

1. Amended in accordance with the provisions made in sections 23, 25 and 27 of the University of the Punjab Act, 1973.
4. (1) The Registrar shall prepare and publish the preliminary list, mentioned in Statute 3 above, by the date to be fixed by the Vice-Chancellor and prominently display on the fixed date one copy of each such list at the Student Teacher Centre at the New Campus and the Registrar's Office at the Old Campus of the University.

(2) The Registrar shall make available copies of this list on payment of [Rs. 10/- each].

5. Persons claiming to have their names entered in the list and persons having any objections to make against any entry therein shall make their claims and objections in writing to the Registrar within three days of the publication of the preliminary list.

6. The Registrar shall decide the claims and objections within two days following the last day fixed for the receipt of claims and objections and, if necessary, on the days following.

7. (1) Any person aggrieved by a decision of the Registrar under Statute 6 may, not later than the office hours of the second day following the last day fixed for disposal of claims and objections, prefer an application in writing to the Registrar for revision of the order.

(2) The Registrar shall receive the application and refer it to a Revision Committee, consisting of the Pro-Vice-Chancellor (Chairman) and two members of the Syndicate to be nominated by the Vice-Chancellor. The Vice-Chancellor shall also nominate a person who will preside over the meeting of the Committee in the absence of the Pro-Vice-Chancellor. Two members shall form quorum for the transaction of business by the Committee.

(3) The applications for revision shall be disposed of by the Committee within two days after the last day of their receipt by the Registrar. Decision shall be made according to the majority, if there is such a majority. If the members are equally divided, the decision of the Chairman shall be final.

8. The additions to, and deletions from, the preliminary lists, shall be notified and displayed within two days of the decision of the Revision Committee.

9. Any person may inspect, in the office of the Registrar, the Electoral Rolls, free of charge, during office hours.

10. The Registrar shall make available copies of the Electoral Rolls on payment of [Rs. 10/- each].

1. Syndicate, dated 7-12-1996.
2. Ibid.
11. No person shall be qualified to vote or to be elected at any election held under these Statutes unless his name is on the Electoral Rolls.

Eligibility for election

12. The Registrar shall be the Returning Officer and shall conduct the election in accordance with the provisions of these Statutes.

Returning Officer

13. Whenever a date or dates is/are fixed by the Vice-Chancellor for holding elections, the Returning Officer shall issue separate notifications specifying the following:-

(a) Number of Members to be elected;

(b) the day (hereinafter referred to as the "nomination day") and time, on, by or within which nomination papers shall be received by the Returning Officer;

(c) the day (hereinafter referred to as the "Scrutiny day") for the scrutiny of nominations;

(d) the day (hereinafter referred to as the "withdrawal day") for the withdrawal of candidature;

(e) the day (hereinafter referred to as the "polling day") or days, hours and place on and at which a poll shall, if necessary, be taken and ballot papers be examined and counted.

14. (1) An elector may nominate any other elector to be a candidate for election by proposal on a prescribed form, obtainable from the Returning Officer, seconded by another elector. The name and the particulars of the proposer, the person proposed and the seconder stated in the nomination form shall not be different from those entered in the Electoral Rolls. The person proposed shall sign the nomination form as a token of his consent to stand for election.

(2) The nomination form shall be forwarded to the Returning Officer, by name, so as to reach him not later than the day and time specified in the election schedule.

(3) The Returning Officer shall record in writing the date and time of the receipt of each nomination received by him, shall enter these particulars in a register to be kept for this purpose and shall issue an acknowledgement receipt.

15. An elector shall be entitled to nominate as many persons for election as there are to be elected.

Number of Nominations
16. If a proposer or a seconder has signed the nomination papers of more than the number of members to be elected from a particular category, all nomination papers signed by him for that particular category shall be declared invalid.

17. (1) The Returning Officer shall affix at his office on the second day following the nomination day a list of all the nominees, who have been proposed and seconded, along with the names of their respective proposers and seconders as shown in the nomination papers. On the scrutiny day, the Returning Officer shall scrutinize the nomination papers and declare which of the nominees have been validly nominated and are qualified for election. He shall prepare and publish a list of the validly nominated persons (hereinafter called the candidates) in an alphabetical order. The rejection of a nomination paper shall not ipso facto invalidate the nomination of a candidate under any other valid nomination paper.

(2) If the number of candidates is less than or equal to the number of vacancies to be filled, the Returning Officer shall declare all the candidates elected.

18. (1) Any candidate, who is not declared elected, may withdraw his candidature by notice in writing subscribed by him and delivered to the Returning Officer within the office hours of the withdrawal day.

(2) No candidate, who has withdrawn his candidature, shall be allowed to cancel his withdrawal.

(3) If the number of candidates, who have not withdrawn, is less than or equal to the number of vacancies to be filled, the Returning Officer shall declare all the candidates elected.

19. A ballot paper shall contain the names of candidates in alphabetical order. It shall be sealed with the seal of the University.

20. The Vice-Chancellor shall appoint three members of the Syndicate none of whom is a candidate in the election, to collaborate with the Returning Officer in the supervision of polling and counting of votes.

21. A person voting, who has inadvertently dealt with his ballot paper or letter of intimation in such a manner that it cannot properly be used, or both may, after delivering the spoiled ballot paper or letter of intimation or both to the Returning Officer, obtain another ballot paper or letter of intimation or both. The counter-foil of the spoiled ballot paper shall be marked as cancelled and the new one supplied together with its counter-foil shall be marked as duplicate.

22. A voter shall vote by putting either a tick (√) or a cross (×) in the space provided for the purpose, against the name of the candidate for whom he wishes to vote. The voting shall be by secret ballot.
23. The ballot paper and the letter of intimation, in the form prescribed by the Vice-Chancellor, shall be received by the voter at the time of voting. A person voting shall sign the letter of intimation, giving his serial number, at the notified place of poll on the day and within the hours notified for the purpose in the presence of the Returning Officer or one of the members appointed under Statute 20. The letter of intimation shall be counter-signed by the Returning Officer or a member appointed under Statute 20, as the case may be. The closed envelope, bearing no identifying mark outside, containing the ballot paper, duly filled, shall then be placed in one locked box and the letter of intimation in the other. No ballot paper shall be received after the expiry of the time notified for the purpose.

24. (1) After the expiry of the hour notified for the closing of the poll, the ballot box shall be opened in the presence of the Returning Officer and such of the candidates or their authorised agents referred to in Statute 25 as may be present. The Returning Officer shall examine each ballot paper and reject any which is invalid. The Returning Officer shall then proceed to count the number of valid ballot papers.

(2) A ballot paper shall be invalid -

(i) if it bears any identifying mark; or

(ii) there is upon it any name, word or sign by which the person voting may be identified; or

(iii) it does not bear the official mark; or

(iv) it has been left blank by the voter; or

(v) the vote has not been cast in the manner prescribed by Statute 22; or

(vi) the vote has been cast in favour of more candidates than the number of persons to be elected; or

(vii) there is any uncertainty about the identity of the candidate in whose favour the vote has been cast; or

(viii) there is any defacement creating a doubt that there has been an attempt to alter or erase the mark of voting.

25. A candidate, or in his absence his authorised agent who must be a voter, shall be allowed to be present at the time of counting of votes.

26. Objections to the decision of the Returning Officer regarding the validity or otherwise of a ballot paper must be made in writing forthwith.
27. Counting of Votes
   (1) The total number of valid votes received by each candidate would entered in the counting sheet(s). In case of equality of valid votes between two or more than two candidates, the Returning Officer shall record the results on the basis of drawing lots in the presence of the candidates or their authorised agents.
   (2) The signatures of such of the candidates or their authorised agents, as may be present, will be obtained by the Returning Officer, who should himself also sign that sheet.
   (3) It shall be open to the Returning Officer to obtain, with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor, such assistance as may be necessary for the purpose of counting votes.

28. Declaration and Publication of the Result of the elections
   (1) Immediately after counting of votes, a list of elected persons shall be prepared by the Returning Officer. Their names shall then be announced to such of the candidates or their authorised agents as may be present.
   (2) A copy of the list prepared under clause (1) of Statute 28 shall be displayed, outside the office of the Returning Officer, the same day.

29. Election Petition
   (1) The election of any candidate shall not be called in question except by means of an election petition, which shall state clearly the nature of the objection and be presented to the Returning Officer within ten days of the declaration of the result.
   (2) The petition shall be decided by a Committee, consisting of the Vice-Chancellor and two members of the Syndicate to be nominated by him. In case the Vice-Chancellor is unable to attend a meeting of the Committee, he shall nominate another member of the Syndicate to act as the third member. If any one of the other two members of the Committee is unable to attend a meeting, the Vice-Chancellor shall appoint another member to act in his place. Two members shall constitute the quorum for the meeting.
   (3) The Vice-Chancellor shall be Ex-Officio Chairman of the Committee. If, however, the Vice-Chancellor is not present at any meeting, the three members shall elect one of them as Chairman of the meeting.
   (4) The decision of the Committee shall be final. In case of difference of opinion the decision of the majority shall prevail.
   (5) The decision shall be given by the Committee within two weeks from the last day for the presentation of election petitions.

30. Publication of results
    The names of the persons elected shall be forthwith submitted to the Vice-Chancellor for approval and if approved shall be published by the Returning Officer in a notification of the University of the Punjab.

31. Preservation of Election papers
    The Returning Officer shall retain until the expiry of six months from the date of the election all the papers connected with the election in a sealed cover to sealed in the presence of the members of the Syndicate appointed to assist him and shall then, subject to any direction to the contrary given by the Syndicate, cause them to be destroyed.
32. If the Registrar is, for any reasons, unable to perform any of the duties assigned to him by these Statutes, the Vice-Chancellor may, in writing, appoint any other officer of the University to discharge those duties.

33. In case any day fixed by part II of these Statutes for any purpose happens to be a University holiday, the day next following shall be considered to be the day fixed for that purpose and the programme for preparation of Electoral Rolls be adjusted accordingly.

(B - BY THE PRINCIPALS AND TEACHERS OF THE AFFILIATED COLLEGES

(2) All expressions used in these Statutes and defined or used in the Act shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in the Act.

PART II
PREPARATION OF ELECTORAL ROLLS

3. In pursuance of [clauses (xiii) and (xiv) of Sub-Section (1) of Section 23, and clauses (xi) and (xii) of Sub-section (1) of Section 27 of the Act,] the Registrar shall prepare and maintain lists of all Teachers and Principals of all the Affiliated Colleges, containing their respective dates of appointment, the name of the college of which each is a teacher or a Principal.

4. The Registrar shall before or on such other date as may be fixed by the Vice-Chancellor notify in such manner as may be prescribed by the Vice-Chancellor that Electoral Rolls of Teachers and Principals of the Affiliated Colleges are to be prepared and revised. A copy of such notice shall also be posted up at the Hailey Hall, University of the Punjab, Lahore.

5. (1) A teacher shall fill the form in his own handwriting and get it attested by the Principal of his college concerned. In the case of a Principal, he shall fill the form in his own handwriting and get it attested by a Gazetted Officer.

(2) The address shown in the application shall be the one where the applicant normally resides or teaches.

(3) The Registrar shall reject any application made in contravention of clause(1) above.

6. (1) The Registrar shall prepare and publish the preliminary lists mentioned in Statute 3 above by the date fixed by the Vice-Chancellor and prominently display by the fixed date a copy of such lists at the Hailey Hall, University of the Punjab, Lahore.

(2) The Registrar shall make available copies of these lists on payment of [Rs. 10/- each.]

7. Persons claiming to have their names entered in any of the lists and persons having any objection to make against any entry therein shall make their claims and objections in writing to the Registrar within ten days of the publication of the preliminary lists.

8. The Registrar shall decide the claims and objections within seven days following the last day fixed for the receipt of claims and objections and, if necessary, on the days following.

1. Amended in accordance with the provisions in Section 23,25 and 27 of the University of the Punjab Act, 1973.
2. Syndicate, dated 7-12-1996.
9. (1) Any person aggrieved by a decision of the Registrar under Statute 8 may, not later than the office hours of the tenth day following the last day fixed for disposal of claims and objections, prefer an application in writing to the Registrar for revision of the order.

(2) The Registrar shall receive the application and refer it to a Revision Committee, consisting of the Pro-Vice-Chancellor (Chairman) and two Members of the Syndicate to be nominated by the Vice-Chancellor. The Vice-Chancellor shall also nominate a person who will preside over the meeting of the Committee in the absence of the Pro-Vice-Chancellor. Two members shall form quorum for the transaction of business by the Committee.

(3) The application for revision shall be disposed of by the Committee within ten days after the last day of their receipt by the Registrar. Decision shall be made according to the majority, if there is such a majority. If the members are equally divided, the decision of the Chairman shall be final.

10. The teachers and the Principals of Affiliated Colleges shall notify the change of their address, if any, to the Registrar by post under a registered cover (acknowledgement due), which must reach the Registrar by the third day following the date fixed for the disposal of claims and objections by the Registrar.

11. The additions to, and deletions from the preliminary lists, shall be notified and displayed within three days of the decision of the Revision Committee.

12. Any person may inspect, in the office of the Registrar, the Electoral Rolls, free of charge, during office hours.

13. The Registrar shall make available copies of the Electoral Rolls on payment of [Rs. 10/- each.]

14. No person shall be qualified to vote or to be elected at any election held under these statutes unless his name is on the Electoral Rolls.

1. Syndicate, dated 7-12-1996.
PART III

CONDUCT OF ELECTIONS

15. The Registrar shall be the Returning Officer and shall conduct the election in accordance with the provisions of these Statutes.

Returning Officer

16. Whenever a date or dates is/are fixed by the Vice-Chancellor for holding elections, the Returning Officer shall issue separate notifications specifying the following:-

Notification regarding election

(a) Number of Members to be elected;
(b) the day (hereinafter referred to as the "nomination day") and time, on, by or within which nomination papers shall be received by the Returning Officer;
(c) the day (hereinafter referred to as the "scrutiny day") for the scrutiny of nominations;
(d) the day (hereinafter referred to as the "withdrawal day") for the withdrawal of candidature;
(e) the day (hereinafter referred to as the "polling day") or days hours and place on and at which a poll shall, if necessary, be taken and ballot papers shall be examined and counted.

17. (1) An elector may nominate any other elector to be a candidate for election by proposal on a prescribed form, obtainable from the Returning Officer, seconded by another elector. The name and the particulars of the proposer, the person proposed and the seconder stated in the nomination form shall not be different from those entered in the Electoral Rolls. The person proposed shall sign the nomination form as a token of his consent to stand for election.

(2) The nomination form shall be forwarded to the Returning Officer, by name, by post under Registered Cover so as to reach him not later than the day and time specified in the election schedule.

(3) The Returning Officer shall record in writing the date and time of the receipt of each nomination received by him, shall enter these particulars in a register to be kept for this purpose and shall issue an acknowledgement receipt.

18. An elector shall be entitled to nominate as many persons for election as there are to be elected.

Number of Nominations
19. If a proposer or a seconder has signed the nomination papers of more than the number of members to be elected from a particular category, all nomination papers signed by him for that particular category shall be declared invalid.

20. (1) The Returning Officer shall affix at his office on the second day following the nomination day a list of all the nominees, who have been proposed and seconded, along with the names of their respective proposers and seconders as shown in the nomination paper. On the scrutiny day the Returning Officer shall scrutinize the nomination papers and declare which of the nominees have been validly nominated and are qualified for election. He shall prepare and publish a list of the validly nominated persons (hereinafter called the candidates) in alphabetical order. The rejection of a nomination paper shall not ipsa facto invalidate the nomination of a candidate under any other valid nomination paper.

(2) If the number of candidates is less than or equal to the number of vacancies to be filled, the Returning Officer shall declare all the candidates elected.

21. (1) Any candidate, who is not declared elected, may withdraw his candidacy by notice in writing subscribed by him and delivered to the Returning Officer within the office hours of the withdrawal day.

(2) No candidate who has withdrawn his candidacy shall be allowed to cancel his withdrawal.

(3) If the number of candidates, who have not withdrawn, is less than or equal to the number of vacancies to be filled, the Returning Officer shall declare all the candidates elected.

(4) If the number of candidates after withdrawal, if any, is greater than the number of vacancies to be filled, a poll shall be held.

22. A ballot paper shall contain the names of candidates in alphabetical order. It shall be sealed with the seal of the University.

23. The Returning Officer shall send, not later than the fifteenth day of the date of declaration of nominations, to every elector (hereinafter referred to as person voting), at the address given in the Register of Teachers and Principals of the Affiliated Colleges, a ballot paper containing the names of candidates in alphabetical order with their academic qualifications, titles and addresses as shown in the nomination papers. The ballot paper shall be sealed with the seal of the University and on its counter-foil shall be noted the number of the elector in the Register of the Teachers and the Principals of the Affiliated Colleges. It shall be accompanied by a letter of intimation in the form prescribed by the Vice-Chancellor giving the date and hours of poll and the number of vacancies, and a copy of the election schedule.
24. No election shall be held to be invalid merely because an elector has failed to receive the ballot paper and letter of intimation in time to return it to the Returning Officer within the time prescribed for the purpose.

25. The Vice-Chancellor shall appoint three members of the Syndicate, none of whom is candidate in the election, to assist the Returning Officer in the supervision of polling and counting of votes.

26. A person voting, who has inadvertently dealt with his ballot paper or letter of intimation in such a manner that it cannot properly be used, or who has lost his ballot paper or letter of intimation, or both, may, after delivering the spoiled ballot paper or letter of intimation or both to the Returning Officer or after satisfying him of the loss of the ballot paper or letter of intimation or both, as the case may be, obtain another ballot paper or letter of intimation or both. The counter-foil of the lost or spoiled ballot paper shall be marked as cancelled and the new one supplied together with its counter-foil shall be marked as duplicate.

27. A voter shall vote by putting either a tick (√) or a cross (x) in the space provided for the purpose, against the name of the candidate for whom he wishes to vote. The voting shall be by secret ballot.

28. (1) A person voting may vote either in person or by post.

(2) A person voting, who chooses to vote in person, shall sign the letter of intimation, giving his serial number, at the notified place of poll on the day and within the hours notified for the purpose in the presence of the Returning Officer or one of the members appointed under Statute 25. The letter of intimation shall be countersigned by the Returning Officer or a member of the Committee, as the case may be. The closed envelope, bearing no identifying mark outside, containing the ballot paper, duly filled, shall then be placed in one locked box and the letter of intimation in the other. No ballot paper shall be received after the expiry of the time notified for the purpose.

(3) Any Teacher or Principal of an Affiliated College voting, desiring to vote by post, shall sign his letter of intimation in the presence of -

(i) a Principal of a degree college affiliated to the University, or

(ii) a Civil Judge, or

(iii) a Magistrate of the First Class.
29. (1) Scrutiny of Ballot Papers and counting thereof

After the expiry of the hour notified for the closing of the poll, the ballot box shall be opened in the presence of the Returning Officer and such of the candidates or their authorised agents referred to in Statute 30, as may be present. The Returning Officer shall examine each ballot paper and reject any which is invalid. The Returning Officer shall then proceed to count the number of valid ballot papers.

(2) A ballot paper shall be invalid -

(i) if it bears any identifying mark; or

(ii) there is upon it any name, word or sign by which the person voting may be identified; or

(iii) it does not bear the official seal; or

(iv) it has been left blank by the voter; or

(v) the vote has not been cast in the manner prescribed by Statute 27; or

(vi) the vote has been cast in favour of more candidates than the number of persons to be elected; or

(vii) there is any uncertainty about the identity of the candidate in whose favour the vote has been cast; or

(viii) there is any defacement creating a doubt that there has been an attempt to alter or erase the mark of voting.

30. Presence of candidate or his agent

A candidate, or in his absence his authorised agent who must be a voter, shall be allowed to be present at the time of counting of votes.

31. Objections to the order of the Returning Officer

Objections to the decision of the Returning Officer regarding the validity or otherwise of a ballot paper must be made in writing forthwith.

32. Counting of Votes

(1) The total number of valid votes received by each candidate would be entered in counting sheet(s). In case of equality of valid votes between two or more than two candidates, the Returning Officer shall record the results on the basis of drawing lots in the presence of the candidates or their authorised agents.

(2) The signatures of such of the candidates or their authorised agents, as may be present, may be obtained by the Returning Officer, who should himself also sign that sheet.
(3) It shall be open to the Returning Officer to obtain, with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor such assistance as may be necessary for the purpose of counting votes.

33. (1) Immediately after counting of votes, a list of the elected persons shall be prepared by the Returning Officer. Their names shall then be announced to such of the candidates or their authorised agents as may be present.

   Declaration and Publication of the result of the Election

   (2) A copy of the list prepared under clause (1) of Statute 33 shall be displayed, outside the office of the Returning Officer, the same day.

34. (1) The election of any candidate shall not be called in question except by means of an election petition, which shall state clearly the nature of the objection and be presented to the Returning Officer within ten days of the declaration of result.

   Election Petitions

   (2) The petition shall be decided by a Committee, consisting of the Vice-Chancellor and two members of the Syndicate nominated by him. In case the Vice-Chancellor is unable to attend a meeting of the Committee, he shall nominate another member of the Syndicate to act as the third member. If any one of the other two members of the Committee is unable to attend meeting, the Vice-Chancellor shall appoint another member to act in his place. Two members shall constitute the quorum for the meeting.

   (3) The Vice-Chancellor shall be Ex-Officio Chairman of the Committee. If however the Vice-Chancellor is not present at any meeting, the three members shall elect one of them as Chairman of the meeting.

   (4) The decision of the Committee shall be final. In case of difference of opinion the decision of the majority shall prevail.

   (5) The decision shall be given by the Committee within two weeks from the last day for the presentation of election petition.

35. The names of the persons elected shall be forthwith submitted to the Vice-Chancellor for approval, and if approved, shall be published by the Returning Officer in a notification of the University of the Punjab.

36. The Returning Officer shall retain until the expiry of six months from the date of the election all the papers connected with the election in a sealed cover to be sealed in the presence of the members of the Syndicate appointed to assist him and shall then, subject to any direction to the contrary given by the Syndicate, cause them to be destroyed.

37. If the Registrar is, for any reasons, unable to perform any of the duties assigned to him by these Statutes, the Vice-Chancellor may, in writing, appoint any other officer of the University to discharge those duties.
38. In case any day fixed by Part II of these Statutes for any purpose happens to be a University holiday, the day next following shall be considered to be the day fixed for that purpose and the programme for preparation of Electoral Rolls be adjusted accordingly.

Part III

CONDUCT OF ELECTIONS

12. The Registrar shall be the Returning Officer and shall conduct the election in accordance with the provisions of these Statutes.

13. Whenever date or date is/are fixed by the Vice-Chancellor for holding elections, the Returning Officer shall issue separate notifications specifying the following:-

(a) Number of Members to be elected;

(b) the day (hereinafter referred to as the “nomination day”) and time on by or within which nomination papers shall be received by the Returning Officer;

(c) the day (hereinafter referred to as the “scrutiny day”) for the scrutiny of nominations;

(d) the day (hereinafter referred to as the “withdrawal day”) for the withdrawal of candidature;

(e) the day (hereinafter referred to as the “polling day”) or days, hours and place on and at which a poll shall, if necessary, be taken and ballot papers shall be examined and counted.

14. (1) Any elector may nominate any other elector to be a candidate for election by proposal on a prescribed form obtainable from the Returning Officer, seconded by another elector. The name and the particulars of the proposer, the person proposed and the seconder stated in the nomination form shall not be different from those entered in the Electoral Rolls. The person proposed shall sign the nomination form as a token of his consent to stand for election.

(2) The nomination form shall be forwarded to the Returning Officer, by name, so as to reach him not later than the day and time specified in the election schedule.

(3) The Returning Officer shall record in writing the date and time of the receipt of each nomination received by him, shall enter these particulars in a register to be kept for this purpose and shall issue an acknowledgement receipt.

15. An elector shall be entitled to nominate as many persons for election as there are to be elected.
16. If a proposer or a seconder has signed the nomination papers of more than the number of members to be elected from a particular category, all nomination papers signed by him for that particular category shall be declared invalid.

17. (1) The Returning Officer shall affix at his office on the second day following the nomination day a list of all the nominees, who have been proposed and seconded, along with the names of their respective proposers and seconders as shown in the nomination papers. On the scrutiny day the Returning Officer shall scrutinize the nomination papers and declare which of the nominees have been validly nominated and are qualified for election. He shall prepare and publish a list of the validly nominated persons (hereinafter called the candidates) in alphabetical order. The rejection of a nomination paper shall not ipso facto invalidate the nomination of a candidate under any other valid nomination paper.

(2) The Returning Officer shall send, not later than the seventh day of the date of declaration of nominations, to every elector (hereinafter referred to as a person voting), at the address given in the Electoral Rolls, a ballot paper containing the names of candidates in alphabetical order with their academic qualifications, titles and addresses as shown in the nomination papers. The ballot paper shall be sealed with the seal of the University, and on its counter-foil shall be noted the number of elector in the Electoral Rolls. It shall be accompanied by a letter of intimation in the form prescribed by the Vice-Chancellor, giving the date and hours of poll and the number of vacancies, and a copy of the election schedule.

20. No election shall be held to be invalid merely because an elector has failed to receive the ballot paper and letter of intimation in time to return it to the Returning Officer within the time prescribed for the purpose.

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Non-receipt of Ballot Papers</th>
</tr>
</thead>
21. A ballot paper shall contain the names of candidates in alphabetical order. It shall be sealed with the seal of the University.

22. The Vice-Chancellor shall appoint three members of the Syndicate, none of whom is a candidate in the election, to assist the Returning Officer in the supervision of polling and counting of votes.

23. A person voting, who has inadvertently dealt with his ballot paper or letter of intimation in such a manner that it cannot properly be used, or who has lost his ballot paper or letter of intimation, or both, may, after delivering the spoiled ballot paper or letter of intimation or both to the Returning Officer or after satisfying him of the loss of the ballot paper or letter of intimation, or both, as the case may be, obtain another ballot paper or letter of intimation or both. The counter-foil of the lost or spoiled ballot paper shall be marked as cancelled and the new one supplied together with its counter-foil shall be marked as duplicate.

24. A voter shall vote by putting either a tick (\(\checkmark\)) or a cross (\(x\)), in the space provided for the purpose, against the name of the candidate for whom he wishes to vote. The voting shall be by secret ballot.

25. A person voting shall sign the letter of intimation, giving his serial number, at the notified place of poll on the day and within the hours notified for the purpose in the presence of the Returning Officer or one of the members appointed under Statute 22. The letter of intimation shall be counter-signed by the Returning Officer or a member appointed under Statute 22, as the case may be. The closed envelope, bearing no identifying mark outside, containing the ballot paper, duly filled, shall then be placed in one locked box and the letter of intimation in the other. No ballot paper shall be received after the expiry of the time notified for the purpose.

26. (1) After the expiry of the hour notified for the closing of the poll, the ballot box shall be opened in the presence of the Returning Officer and such of the candidates or their authorised agents referred to in Statute 27 as may be present. The Returning Officer shall examine each ballot paper and reject any which is invalid. The Returning Officer shall then proceed to count the number of valid ballot papers.

(2) A ballot paper shall be invalid:-

(i) if it bears any indentifying mark; or

(ii) there is upon it any name, word or sign by which the person voting may be identified; or

(iii) it does not bear the official mark; or
(iv) it has been left blank by the voter; or
(v) the vote has not been cast in the manner prescribed by Statute 24; or
(vi) the vote has been cast in favour of more candidates than the number of persons to be elected; or
(vii) there is any uncertainty about the identity of the candidate in whose favour the vote has been cast; or
(viii) there is any defacement creating a doubt that there has been an attempt to alter or erase the mark of voting.

27. A candidate, or in his absence his authorised agent who must be a voter, shall be allowed to be present at the time of counting of votes.

28. Objections to the decision of the Returning Officer regarding the validity or otherwise of a ballot paper must be made in writing forthwith.

29. (1) The total number of valid votes received by each candidate would be entered in the counting sheet(s). In case of equality of valid votes between two or more than two candidates, the Returning Officer shall record the results on the basis of drawing lots in the presence of the candidates or their authorised agents.
(2) The signatures of such of the candidates or their authorised agents, as may be present, will be obtained by the Returning Officer, who should himself also sign that sheet.
(3) It shall be open to the Returning Officer to obtain, with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor, such assistance as may be necessary for the purpose of counting of votes.

30. (1) Immediately after counting of votes, a list of the elected persons shall be prepared by the Returning Officer. Their names shall then be announced to such of the candidates or their authorised agents as may be present.
(2) A copy of the list prepared under clause (1) of Statute 30 shall be displayed, outside the office of the Returning Officer, the same day.

31. (1) The election of any candidate shall not be called in question except by means of an election petition, which shall state clearly the nature of the objection and be presented to the Returning Officer within ten days of the declaration of the result.
(2) The petition shall be decided by a Committee, consisting of the Vice-Chancellor and two members of the Syndicate nominated by him. In case the Vice-Chancellor is unable to attend a meeting of the Committee, he shall nominate another member of the Syndicate to act as the third member. If any one of the other two members of the Committee is unable to attend a meeting, the Vice-Chancellor shall appoint another member to act in his place. Two members shall constitute the quorum for the meeting.

(3) The Vice-Chancellor shall be Ex-Officio Chairman of the Committee. If, however, the Vice-Chancellor is not present at any meeting, the three members shall elect one of them as Chairman of the meeting.

(4) The decision of the Committee shall be final. In case of difference of opinion, the decision of the majority shall prevail.

(5) The decision shall be given by the Committee within two weeks from the last day for the presentation of election petitions.

32. The names of the persons elected shall be forthwith submitted to the Vice-Chancellor for approval and if approved shall be published by the Returning Officer in a notification of the University of the Punjab.

33. The Returning Officer shall retain until the expiry of six months from the date of the election all the papers connected with the election in a sealed cover to be sealed in the presence of the members of the Syndicate appointed to assist him and shall then, subject to any direction to the contrary given by the Syndicate, cause them to be destroyed.

34. If the Registrar is, for any reasons, unable to perform any of the duties assigned to him by these Statutes, the Vice-Chancellor may, in writing, appoint any other officer of the University to discharge those duties.

35. In case any day fixed by Part II of these Statutes for any purpose happens to be a University holiday, the day next following shall be considered to be the day fixed for that purpose and the programme for preparation of Electoral Rolls be adjusted accordingly.

(ii) the day (hereinafter referred to as the "scrutiny day") for the scrutiny of nominations;

(iii) the day (hereinafter referred to as the "withdrawal day") for the withdrawal of candidature;

(iv) the day (hereinafter referred to as the "polling day") or days, hour and place on and at which a poll shall, if necessary, be taken, and ballot papers shall be examined and counted.

17. (1) An elector may nominate any other elector to be a candidate for election by proposal on a prescribed form, obtainable from the Returning Officer, seconded by another elector. The name, academic qualifications, titles, if any, and the address of the proposer, the person proposed and the seconder stated in the nomination form shall not be different from those entered in the Register of Registered Graduates. The person proposed shall sign the nomination form as a token of his consent to stand for election.

(2) The nomination form shall be forwarded to the Returning Officer by name by post under registered cover so as to reach him not later than the day and time mentioned in sub-clause (i) of clause (b) of Statute 16.

(3) The Returning Officer shall record in writing the date and time of the receipt of each nomination received by him and shall enter these particulars in a register to be kept for this purpose.
[4. [Such Registered Graduates as are desirous to contest the Election shall pay Rs. 1000/- as fee for contesting the election of the Senate as Registered Graduates]1

18. An elector shall be entitled to nominate as many persons for election as there are vacancies.

Number of Nominations

19. (1) Each nominee shall deposit as security a sum of rupees two hundred in cash in the Punjab University Branch of the Habib Bank, Lahore, and shall attach the receipt therefor with the nomination paper.

Security

(2) The Security shall be refundable if the nominee withdraws his name by the withdrawal day.

(3) The Security shall be forfeited in case the nominee fails to secure 10% of the total votes polled.

20. (1) If a proposer or a seconder has signed the nomination papers of more nominees than the number of vacancies, all nomination papers signed by him shall be declared invalid.

Invalidation of Nominations

(2) If a nominee fails to comply with the provisions of clause (1) of Statute 19, his nomination papers shall be declared invalid.

21. (1) The Returning Officer shall affix at his office on the third day following the nomination day a list of all the nominees who have been proposed and seconded. On the scrutiny day the Returning Officer shall scrutinize the nomination papers and declare which of the nominees have been validly nominated and are qualified for election. He shall prepare a list of the validly nominated persons (hereinafter called the candidates) in alphabetical order.

Scrutiny of Nominations

(2) If the number of candidates is less than or equal to the number of vacancies to be filled, the Returning Officer shall declare all the candidates to be elected.

22. (1) Any candidate, who is not declared to have been elected, may withdraw his candidature by notice in writing subscribed by him and delivered to the Returning Officer within the office hours of the withdrawal day.

Withdrawal of candidature

(2) No candidate, who has withdrawn his candidature, shall be allowed to cancel his withdrawal.

(3) If the number of candidates, who have not withdrawn, is less than or equal to the number of vacancies to be filled, the Returning Officer shall declare all the candidates to be elected.

23. (1) If the number of candidates after withdrawal, if any, is greater than the vacancies to be filled, a poll shall be held.

Despatch of Ballot Papers

(2) The Returning Officer shall send, not later than the fifteenth day of the date of declaration of nominations, to every elector (hereinafter referred to as a person voting), at the address given in the Register of Registered Graduates, a ballot paper containing the names of candidates in alphabetical order with their academic qualifications, titles and addresses as shown in the nomination papers. The ballot paper shall be sealed with a seal prescribed by the Syndicate and on its counter-foil shall be noted the number of the elector in the Register of Registered Graduates. It shall be accompanied by a letter of intimation in the form prescribed by the Syndicate, giving the date and hours of poll and the number of vacancies, and a copy of the election schedule.

24. No election shall be held to be invalid merely because an elector has failed to receive the ballot paper and letter of intimation in time to return it to the Returning Officer within the time prescribed for the purpose.

Non-receipt of ballot papers

25. The Syndicate shall appoint four members of the Syndicate to assist the Returning Officer in the supervision of polling and counting of votes. The Returning Officer, and not the members so appointed, shall decide whether a ballot paper or a letter of intimation is valid or not.

Members of the Syndicate to assist the Returning Officer

26. A person voting, who has inadvertently dealt with his ballot paper or letter of intimation in such a manner that it cannot properly be used, or who has lost his ballot paper or letter of intimation, or both, may after delivering the spoiled ballot paper or letter of intimation or both to the Returning Officer or after satisfying him of the loss of the ballot paper or letter of intimation, or both, as the case may be, obtain another ballot paper or letter of intimation or both. The counter-foil of the lost or spoiled ballot paper shall be marked as cancelled and the new one supplied together with its counter-foil shall be marked as duplicate.

Loss or spoiling of voting paper or letter of intimation

27. A person voting shall vote by putting a cross in the space provided for the purpose against the name of the candidate for whom he wishes to vote.

Filling of ballot paper

28. (1) A person voting may vote either in person or by post.

Voting

(2) A person voting, who chooses to vote in person, shall sign the letter of intimation, giving his serial number, at the notified place of poll on the day and within the hours notified for the purpose in the presence of the Returning Officer or one of the members appointed under Statute 25. The letter of intimation shall be counter-signed by the Returning Officer or a member of the Committee, as the case may be. The closed envelope bearing no identifying mark outside, containing the ballot paper, duly filled, shall then be placed in one locked box and the letter of intimation in the other. No ballot paper shall be received after the expiry of the time notified for the purpose.

(3) Any person voting, desiring to vote by post, shall sign his letter of intimation in the presence of:-

(i) the Principal of a Degree College affiliated to the University, or
(ii) A Civil Judge, or
(iii) a Magistrate of the First Class, or in case a person voting is in Military Service, he shall sign his letter of intimation in the presence of an Officer not below the rank of a Colonel. The authority in whose presence the person voting has signed his letter of intimation shall authenticate the letter of intimation with his signature and seal of office. The person voting shall then put the letter of intimation along with the closed envelope (bearing no identifying mark outside), containing his ballot paper, duly filled, in a second envelope addressed to the Returning Officer and forward the same by registered post so as to reach the Returning Officer not later than the date and hour notified for the closing of the poll. Any envelope received after the expiry of the time notified for the purpose or otherwise than by registered post shall be treated as invalid. Any envelope duly received shall be placed in a box and kept in safe custody.

29. (1) After the expiry of the hour notified for the closing of the poll, the box containing the envelopes received by post, mentioned in clause (3) of Statute 28, shall be opened in the presence of the Returning Officer and such of the candidates or their authorised agents referred to in Statute 30 as may be present. Each such envelope shall be opened and the Returning Officer shall examine each letter of intimation. If a letter of intimation is found to be unsigned or not authenticated in the manner referred to in Statute 28, the accompanying ballot paper shall be treated as invalid. If the letter of intimation is found to be in order, the envelope containing the ballot paper shall be placed in the locked box containing the ballot papers.

(2) After the letters of intimation received by post have been examined and action as aforesaid completed, the box containing the envelopes enclosing the ballot papers shall be unlocked on the day and the hour appointed for this purpose and each envelope opened in the presence of the Returning Officer and such of the candidates or their authorised agents as may be present. The Returning Officer shall examine each ballot paper and reject any which is invalid. The Returning Officer, with the assistance of the members appointed, shall then count the number of valid ballot papers.
(3) A ballot paper shall be invalid if :-

(i) the envelope containing it bears any identifying mark outside; or

(ii) there is upon it any name, word or mark, other than the number, by which the person voting may be identified; or

(iii) it does not bear the official mark; or

(iv) it has been left blank by the person voting; or

(v) the vote has not been cast in the manner prescribed by Statute 27; or

(vi) the vote has been cast in favour of more candidates than the number of vacancies; or

(vii) there is any uncertainty as to the identity of the candidate in whose favour the vote has been cast; or

(viii) there is any defacement creating a doubt that there has been an attempt to alter or erase the mark of voting.

(4) If the ballot papers cannot be examined or counted or the result cannot be declared on the polling day, the Returning Officer shall, in the presence of the members appointed under Statute 25, and such of the candidates on their authorised agents as may be present, place the ballot papers in the ballot box and reseal it. The ballot box shall be re-opened on the next day or, if necessary, days next following and the Returning Officer shall proceed to complete the action aforesaid.

30. A candidate, or in his absence his authorised agent who must be a voter, shall be allowed to be present at the time of counting of votes.

Presence of candidate or his agent

31. Objections to the decision of the Returning Officer regarding the validity or otherwise of a letter of intimation or a ballot paper must be made in writing forthwith.

Objections to the order of the Returning Officer

32. (1) The total number of votes received by each candidate would be entered in the counting sheet.

Counting of Votes

(2) The signature of such of the candidates or their authorised agents as may be present, will be obtained by the Returning Officer, who should himself also sign that sheet.

(3) It shall be open to the Returning Officer to obtain, with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor, such assistance as may be necessary for the purpose of counting votes.
33. (1) Immediately after counting of votes list of the elected persons shall be prepared by the Returning Officer and their names shall be announced to such of the candidates or their authorised agents as may be present.

(2) A copy of the list prepared under clause (1) of Statute 33 shall be posted outside the office of the Returning Officer, the same day.

34. (1) The election of any candidate shall not be called in question except by means of an election petition, which shall state clearly the nature of the objection and be presented to the Registrar within ten days of the declaration of the result.

(2) The petition shall be decided by a Committee, consisting of the Vice-Chancellor and two members appointed by the Syndicate. In case the Vice-Chancellor is unable to attend a meeting of the Committee, he shall nominate another member of the Syndicate to act as the third member; but if any one of the other two members of the Committee is unable to attend a meeting, the Syndicate shall appoint another member to act in his place.

(3) The Vice-Chancellor shall be Ex-Officio Chairman of the Committee. But if the Vice-Chancellor is not present at any meeting, the three members shall elect one of them as Chairman of the meeting.

(4) The decision of the Committee shall be final. In case of difference of opinion the decision of the majority shall prevail. On technical matters the Committee hearing the petition may, at its discretion, seek assistance of experts to be appointed by the Vice-Chancellor.

35. The names of the persons elected shall be forthwith submitted to the Syndicate for approval, and if approved, shall be published in a notification of the University of the Punjab.

36. The Returning Officer shall retain until the expiry of six months from the date of the election all the papers connected with the election in a sealed cover, to be sealed in the presence of the members of the Syndicate appointed to assist him and shall then, subject to any direction to the contrary given by the Syndicate, cause them to be destroyed.

37. If the Registrar is, for any reasons, unable to perform any of the duties assigned to him by these Statutes, the Vice-Chancellor may, in writing, appoint any other officer of the University to discharge those duties.

38. In case any day fixed by Part II of these Statutes for any purpose happens to be a University holiday, the day next following shall be considered to be the day fixed for that purpose and the programme for preparation of Registers be adjusted accordingly.

(z) to propose drafts for Statutes for submission to the Senate;

(aa) to consider and deal in the manner prescribed in sub-section (2) of section 32, the Regulations made by the Academic Council provided that the Syndicate may frame a Regulation at its own initiative and approve it after calling for the advice of the Academic Council;

(bb) to regulate, determine and administer all other matters concerning the University and to this end exercise all other powers in this behalf not specifically mentioned in this Act and the Statutes;
(cc) to delegate any of its powers to an Authority or a committee or sub-committee; and

(dd) to perform such other functions as have been assigned to it by the other provisions of this Act or the Statutes.

[1. The Vice-Chancellor shall preside at all meetings of the Syndicate at which he may be present. In his absence the members present at a meeting shall elect a Chairman. The order of speaking and conduct of business shall be determined by the Chairman.

2. In a meeting of the Syndicate the decision of the majority shall prevail. When the votes are equal, the Chairman shall have a casting vote.

3. All proceedings at meetings shall be recorded in writing and signed by the Registrar and countersigned by the Chairman. Any Fellow of the University shall be entitled to inspect in the University Office, during office hours, the proceedings of the meetings of the Syndicate.]

4. (i) [In the month of January every alternate year, the Syndicate shall appoint one or more [Disciplinary Committee] to deal with the cases of alleged use of unfair means in connection with the Examinations and other matters affecting the discipline of students.

(ii) [Each Disciplinary Committee shall consist of at least three members. The Deputy Controller of Examinations (Secrecy) shall act as Member Secretary of the Committee/s. The quorum for a meeting of Disciplinary Committee shall be three members]

(iii) [Provided that if the Controller of Examinations is himself a complainant or initiates the proceedings against a candidate he shall not sit as a member of the Disciplinary Committee deciding the case of such a candidate, and another member may be appointed in his place for the disposal of such cases.]

Except as given in the provisio below, the unanimous decision of the Disciplinary Committee in dealing with cases of the alleged use of unfair means in connection with the examinations shall be final. If the Disciplinary Committee is not unanimous, the matter shall be referred to the Vice-Chancellor, who shall either decide the matter himself or refer it to the Syndicate for decision.

4. The Syndicate at its meeting held on 5 April 1969(paragraph 2) authorized the Vice-Chancellor to set up as many disciplinary Committees as he thinks necessary to clear the pending cases of unfair means in the University Examination.
Provided that if, in the opinion of the Vice-Chancellor, facts have been brought to light within 30 days of the receipt of the decision by the candidate which, had they been before the Disciplinary Committee, might have induced them to come to a decision other than, one arrived at, the Vice-Chancellor may order that such facts be reduced to writing and placed before the Disciplinary Committee; the Disciplinary Committee shall then reconsider the case. The unanimous decision of the Disciplinary Committee on reconsideration, if confirmed by the Vice-Chancellor, shall be final. In case the Vice-Chancellor does not approve the unanimous decision of the Disciplinary Committee, he shall refer the matter to the Syndicate for decision. If the Disciplinary Committee is not unanimous, the matter shall be referred to the Vice-Chancellor, who shall either decide the matter himself or refer it to the Syndicate for decision.

5. Where the Vice-Chancellor or seven members of the Syndicate feel that a certain decision requires reconsideration, the matter may be placed on the agenda of the Syndicate giving reason therefor; it being understood that the case will not be reconsidered a second time within the six months of the arrival of the earlier decision. If the Syndicate arrives at the same decision for the second time that decision will be final and no appeal shall lie against it.]

RULES OF PROCEDURE FOR THE MEETINGS OF THE SYNDICATE

[(1) The Registrar shall, with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor, prepare the agenda for a meeting of the Syndicate. Ordinarily a week's notice shall be given for the meeting.

(2) At least four days before a meeting, the Registrar shall circulate among the members, by post or through special messenger, the agenda for the meeting with relevant papers and explanatory statements.

(3) Supplementary agenda may be issued by the Registrar, if the occasion so demands, 24 hours before the meeting is due to take place.

(4) The Registrar or a member of the Syndicate may, with the permission of the Vice-Chancellor/Chairman propose for consideration an item under "Current Work" for which previous notice to members shall not be necessary.

(5) Any item included in the ordinary agenda, supplementary agenda or current work may be taken up for consideration in such order as may be deemed fit by the Vice-Chancellor/Chairman.

(6) If a member so desires, he may propose in writing the consideration of any item in a meeting at a notice of at least 15 days before the meeting and send his proposal to the Registrar. The Registrar may include the item in the agenda with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor provided it is otherwise admissible under Section 26 of the University of the Punjab Act, 1973.

(7) Matters under consideration in a meeting shall be decided by a simple majority vote.

(8) In case of a tie, the Vice-Chancellor/Chairman shall have a casting vote in addition to his vote as a Syndic.

(9) The record of proceedings of meetings of the Syndicate shall be maintained by the Registrar and shall be confirmed by the Vice-Chancellor/Chairman as the case may be. The proceedings after authentication shall be circulated among the members. An advance copy of a Para of the proceedings may, with the permission of the Vice-Chancellor, be issued for necessary action.

(10) The Registrar may, if the occasion so demands, convene an emergency meeting of the Syndicate with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor irrespective of the time limit prescribed in Rules 1, 2 and 3 above.

(11) In case it is not considered feasible to call an emergency meeting of the Syndicate, the Vice-Chancellor may decide that opinion of members on a certain issue be invited by a certain date by circulating the relevant papers and the issue be deemed to have been settled according to the views of the majority of the members who send in their opinion within time, treating the rest as neutral, provided that at least 50 percent of the members express their opinion on the issue.

(12) The proceedings of a meeting of the Syndicate, which has been held with a proper quorum, shall not be invalidated on the ground that any member(s) did not receive, within time or at all, the notice or papers or both for that meeting of the Syndicate, although the notice or papers or both were despatched by the Office in the usual manner.

(13) These rules may be added to, changed or modified from time to time or dispensed with at the discretion of the Syndicate.]¹

(6) Any item included in the ordinary agenda, supplementary agenda or current work may be taken up for consideration in such order as may be deemed fit by the Vice-Chancellor/Chairman.

(7) If a member so desires, he may propose in writing the consideration of any item in a meeting at a notice of at least 10 days before the meeting and send his proposal to the Registrar. The Registrar may include the item in the agenda with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor provided it is otherwise admissible under Statutes, Regulations or Rules.

(8) Every matter under consideration in the meeting shall be decided by a simple majority vote.

(9) In case of a tie, the Vice-Chancellor/Chairman shall have a casting vote in addition to his vote as a member of the Academic Council.

(10) The record of proceedings of meetings of the Academic Council shall be maintained by the Registrar and shall be confirmed by the Vice-Chancellor/Chairman. The proceedings after authentication shall be circulated among the members. An advance copy of a paragraph of the proceedings may, with permission of the Vice-Chancellor, be issued for necessary action.

(11) The Registrar may, if the occasion so demands, convene an emergency meeting of the Academic Council with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor irrespective of the time limit prescribed in Rules 1, 2, and 3 above.

(12) In case it is not considered feasible to call an emergency meeting of the Academic Council, the Vice-Chancellor may order that opinion of members on a certain issue be invited by a certain date by circulating the relevant papers among the members and decide the issue according to the views of the majority of the members who send in their opinions within time, treating the rest as neutral, provided that at least 50 percent of the members have expressed their opinion on the issue.

(13) The proceedings of the Academic Council shall not be invalidated on the ground that any member(s) did not receive within five days or at all, the notice or papers or both for a meeting of the Academic Council.

(14) The Academic Council may authorise the Vice-Chancellor/Chairman or a Sub-Committee composed of its members to take a decision on its behalf. The validity of this decision shall not be questioned in a subsequent meeting of the Academic Council.
A decision taken by the Academic Council shall not ordinarily be reconsidered within a period of two years from the date on which it has been taken, except when at least one half of the members of the Academic Council make a written request to the Vice-Chancellor and he recommends its reconsideration.

These rules may be added to, changed, modified or dispensed with from time to time at the discretion of the Academic Council.

MOTIONS AND AMENDMENTS

Proposals submitted to the Academic Council and entered upon the notice of a meeting, shall be dealt with as motions before such a meeting without being proposed and seconded at such a meeting. Every other motion relating to the items on the agenda or amendment shall be reduced to writing and read out by the mover, and shall be delivered to the Registrar. Every such motion that is not seconded shall drop. In the event of no member wishing to speak on the motion or in respect of any amendment, or after such discussion on any such motion or amendment as the Chairman considers sufficient, the Chairman shall proceed to put the question to the House.

When there is an amendment, the amendment shall be first put to vote; if the amendment is lost, and no further amendment is proposed, the original motion shall be put to the vote.

Should any amendment be carried, the proposal as amended shall be stated from the Chair, and may then be debated as a substantive proposal to which further amendments may be proposed and dealt with as herein-before provided. Not more than one amendment shall be put to vote at any one time.

Any motion or amendment may be withdrawn with the consent of the House if the mover so desires.

ORDER OF SPEAKING

The Chairman shall control the order in which members may address the meeting, and the manner in which the business shall be conducted. No member shall address the meeting after the Chairman has called for a vote.

Members, when speaking, shall address the Chair. No member shall, without special leave from the Chairman, speak more than once on the same proposition.

VOTING

On putting any question to vote, the Chairman shall call for a show of hand for 'Ayes' or 'Nos' and shall declare the result.
