4. During the academic session, part-time lecturers may be granted leave beyond the limit prescribed in Statute (3) above subject to the approval of the Dean of the Law Faculty and the fact reported to the Law College Committee for such action as they may deem necessary.

5. They shall to deliver up to 8 lectures per week in addition to such duties of extra-curricular nature as the Principal may specify.

6. The regularity of the teacher, apart from other considerations shall be considered at the time of re-appointment every year. A teacher who merely takes the attendance or does not take his full period shall be deemed to have absented himself from his period and the necessary deduction made from his salary.

Provided that these Statutes shall apply to:-

(a) Persons appointed or re-appointed after the enforcement of these Statutes; and

(b) Persons amongst the old employees who opt for these Statutes.

7. The same conditions of service shall be applicable to Part-time Associate Professors of Law also, subject to the following provision:

(a) They shall be required to deliver half the number of lectures per week fixed for the Part-time Law Lecturers.

(b) In their case the leave of absence on full pay shall not exceed 8 lectures and leave for special reasons shall not exceed 6 lectures during the academic session but a deduction of Rs. 50/- per lecture shall be made for the period of leave in the later case.]
(b) Lectures on part time basis by University Teachers

The rates of remuneration to part-time teachers have been fixed as below subject to the condition that conveyance charges will not be paid:-

1. Professor (BPS-20,21) — Rs. 600/- per Lecture
2. Associate Professor (BPS-19) — Rs. 500/- per Lecture
3. Assistant Professor/ Lecturer/Contract/Part time Teacher of Eminence — Rs. 600/- per Lecture.

Three practical hours be counted equivalent to two theory lectures for the purposes of payment.

[Upper Ceiling of remuneration has been fixed as follows:-

1. Rs. 1.50 lac for teachers working in BPS-20,21
2. Rs. 1.20 lac for teachers working in BPS-19
3. Rs. 1.00 lac for teachers working in BPS-18,17]

4. Administrative, Technical and Library Staff:

I. PAY SCALES

(a) CLASS ‘A’

The pay scales of the employees of Class ‘A’ of the University of the Punjab (other than the teaching staff), vide Appendix ‘A’ shall have effect from the 1st day of March, 1972, subject to the condition that on fixation in these scales, no arrears shall be payable in respect of the period prior to the 1st August, 1973.

1. No University teacher should deliver lectures in another Teaching Department/Constituent College except with the consent of the Principals/Chairmen of the borrowing and lending Departments/Colleges and the prior approval of the Vice-Chancellor. Payment for the extra lectures should be made on the production of a certificate from the Chairman/Principal of the Department/College concerned to the effect that the teacher was carrying full load of teaching work prescribed in the West Pakistan (University of the Punjab) Ordinance, 1961, and that the lectures delivered by him in another Department/College were in addition to the prescribed load of teaching work. No whole-time teacher of a Department/College of the University could be appointed as a part-time lecturer in another or same Department/College on a fixed monthly remuneration. A teacher could only be paid on lecture basis for the extra lectures delivered by him in another or same Department/College in addition to the prescribed load of teaching work in his own Department/College. (Chancellor’s Committee 31 March 1975, paragraph 5(3).)

3. Approved by the Syndicate dated 7-7-2001.
The pay of the employees in the National Pay Scales shall be fixed in accordance with the Punjab (Gazetted) Civil Services (Pay Revision) Rules, 1973, published in Notification No. FD-PR-2-2/72, dated 17th December, 1973, and in accordance with the provisions contained in the subsequent Notifications issued by the Government of the Punjab on the subject.

In cases where the operation of these rules causes undue hardship to a University employee, the Selection Board/Syndicate may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, relax any of these in his favour.

The employees of Class ‘A’ of the University of the Punjab (other than the Teaching Staff) shall be entitled to grant of such compensatory allowances/special pays as are admissible to Gazetted Government servants, vide letter No. FD-PR-2-2/72(A) dated 17th December 1973, of the Additional Finance Secretary, Government of the Punjab.

VI. TECHNICAL STAFF EMPLOYED IN THE PRESS

The following Statutes shall be applicable to the technical staff employed in the University Press:

1. The Punjab University Press shall enjoy all Gazetted and local holidays observed by the University Office.

2. [Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the existing Statutes, Rules and Regulations, the technical staff employed in the Punjab University Press shall be governed by the Civil Service Rules as applicable to the technical employees of the Government Press, Lahore, in so far as grant of leave is concerned, provided that amendments made from time to time in the Government Rules shall also apply to the technical staff of the Punjab University Press.] This will have retrospective effect from 1st February, 1965.

3. The Punjab University Press may, for the present, adopt the quantum of work per hour obtaining in the Government Printing.

4. Proportionate recoveries shall be made from the salaries of technical hands whose work falls short of the prescribed quantum. All technical hands are given the option of adopting the prescribed quantum of work or agreeing to work on piece-rate system as approved by the Syndicate in its proceedings, dated the 19th November 1951, Appendix IV, Paragraph 8.

5. All members of the present technical staff shall continue on salary basis except those who opt for piece-rate system in vogue at the Government Printing.

6. All new entrants shall invariably be appointed on piece-wages in the first instance and brought on the list of salaried workers when their work is found up to the mark- except Machine-minders and their Assistants who will be appointed on the salary basis.

5. Seniority

The Seniority inter-se of members of the service shall, in so far as each class of the posts is concerned, be determined by the date of confirmation in a post of the class.

Provided that in the case of members who are either not confirmed or are confirmed in the same class of posts on the same date, or in any case not provided for in these Statutes, the seniority shall be determined in the following manner:-

(a) Members recruited by promotion shall be senior to members recruited otherwise, provided that their date of promotion is the same;

(b) In the case of permanent members of the service appointed to officiate against higher posts, their relative seniority shall be fixed in accordance with their position on the permanent list of the cadre, namely, the person who was senior as a Junior Clerk shall be senior as a Senior Clerk to those who were junior to him on the permanent list of Junior Clerks. In other words, the seniority shall be recognized in accordance with their seniority in their substantive grades, irrespective of their date of promotion to officiate in higher post or posts;

(c) In the case of members who are recruited by direct appointment, an elder member shall be senior to a younger member, provided their date of appointment is the same.

Provided that if any member is reverted to his former post or is demoted temporarily and is subsequently reappointed to the post from which he had been reverted or reduced temporarily, his seniority in that post shall be determined by the appointing authority.

6. Crossing the Efficiency Bar

(a) [The Vice-Chancellor, on the recommendation of the Head of the Department and after perusal of the record of the person concerned, shall pass orders for crossing the efficiency bar.]¹

(b) The recommendations of the Commission shall be kept in view while recommending the cases of crossing the efficiency bars.

(c) While deciding the cases of crossing the efficiency bars, the confidential reports of the entire service of the persons concerned should be kept in view.

¹. (a) Substituted for the original clause. Syndicate dated 3 April, 1965, Paragraph 31.

(b) Pro-Vice-Chancellor has been given the power to pass final orders for crossing efficiency bar in the case of Administrative Staff. Chancellor's Committee dated 23 December, 1974, paragraph 23. Notified vide Registrar's No. D/600/Est. dated 30 January, 1975. Also see item 3(13) of Part XIII.

(c) The Dean has been given the power to pass final orders for crossing efficiency bar in the case of technical staff working in the teaching departments/Institutes/Constituent Colleges. Chancellor's Committee dated 3 March, 1976. (Notified vide Registrar's No. 1146/G.M., dated 12 May, 1976.)
In case an employee is not allowed to cross an efficiency bar, he shall have the right to appeal to the Syndicate against the orders.

If there are two or more efficiency bars in a particular grade and the officer has been allowed to cross one efficiency bar, his record preceding the last crossing of efficiency bar will not be taken into consideration in allowing him to cross the next efficiency bar.

Adverse remarks must be conveyed to the person concerned. The final authority should decide which remarks should be conveyed to the person concerned.

7. Post-dating of Promotion/Appointment to a higher post

[A University employee on promotion/appointment to a higher grade, whether in an officiating or substantive capacity, may have his promotion/appointment post-dated up to a date when it will be to his benefit to be promoted/appointed. This, however, shall be before the expiry of a period of six months from the date on which he receives the orders of promotion/appointment. The option once exercised shall be final in respect of promotion/appointment to a particular grade.]

8. Notice of Discharge from service

In case of temporary employees or such permanent employees whose posts are retrenched, with the previous approval of the Syndicate, reasonable notice shall be given by the University for termination of service. The following period is considered as the minimum for this purpose:

Temporary employees . . . One month

Permanent employees . . . Three months.

As a safeguard towards this condition the temporary incumbent [excluding temporary teachers] shall have to keep basic pay for one month in deposit provided always that the University may in lieu of any notice, herein provided for, give a sum equivalent to the amount of pay for the period of notice or for short notice that the prescribed limit equal to the amount of incumbent's pay for the period of which such a notice falls short.

9. Quit Service Notice

No employee of the University shall be permitted to leave the [service] unless he gives one month's notice if he is on probation or holds a temporary post and three months' notice in case of a permanent employee, failing which he would be required to forgo his pay for that period, provided the appointing Authority may

3. Service Certificate be not issued to the employees who retire, resign or quit the University service otherwise; Photostat copies of the Service Book duly attested by the Treasurer may, however, be given to the employees who have University service on their demand. (Syndicate 30 June, 1967, paragraph 22.)
at its discretion waive the condition of notice in special cases for reasons to be recorded. The period of notice shall start from the date on which an employee gives notice to the University and the appointing authority retains the right of permitting such an employee to leave earlier if it is satisfied that his departure would be without detriment to the University work.

For purposes of giving notice to leave the University service, part-time employees shall be treated as temporary employees.

10. Permission to undertake out-side work

(1) No whole-time University employee shall engage directly or indirectly in any trade, occupation or business, nor shall he engage in private tuition or in any other work without obtaining the previous sanction of the Vice-Chancellor through the Head of the Department concerned.

Provided that no permission shall be necessary (in the case of the teaching staff of the University) for work relating to marking of scripts, inspection of examination centres, or acting as Superintendent, and for lectures delivered in the Department (other than their own Departments), etc., when the total emoluments accruing from such work do not exceed Rs. [4000]1 per annum. The Vice-Chancellor may, however, allow a person to draw remuneration up to Rs. [6000]2 in exceptional cases, provided he was certain that the teaching work would not suffer.

[The emoluments accrued, due to a teacher, on account of examinership, etc., from the University of the Punjab including other institutions in excess of the ceiling of Rs. 6000/- be credited to the University Funds]3 [Provided further that each University teacher shall declare his income annually from sources other than salary, and that in case it did not exceed Rs. [4000]4 per annum it shall suffice for him to certify that his income during a particular financial year did not exceed Rs. 4000.

Provided [also]5 that the application of this provision shall not cover any payment for writing books, extension lectures, rewards for research, Principal's and special allowances for carrying on particular duties outside the work of the employees approved by the Vice-Chancellor.

1. Substituted for the figure Rs. 3,500/- (Syndicate, 30 June, 1970, Para 7.)

2. Substituted for the figure Rs. 5,000/- Ibid.

3. The Chairmen of the Departments (Conveners of the Boards of Studies) be requested to distribute the examinership in an equitable manner to ensure that the existing gap finance between various teachers of a department was reduced. (Syndicate, 21 June, 1970, paragraph 7.)

4. Substituted for the figure Rs. 3,500/- Ibid.

Note: The Syndicate on 28 May, 1977, decided that provision be made to grant permission to undertake consultancy and advisory work subject to prescribed conditions. This will become effective from the date amendment to the Statute is approved.
(2) All University employees should be treated on duty if:-

(a) They are called upon to act as examiners for the examinations conducted by this University and Boards of Intermediate and Secondary Education and other Universities.

(b) They are invited to attend educational or academic conferences or meetings of the Boards of Studies of various Universities and Boards of Intermediate and Secondary Education.

Provided that: -

(i) The total period for which a member of the Academic Staff could remain absent from duty for attending conferences, conducting examinations, inspecting colleges and examination centres, etc., shall not exceed 25 days in one academic year.

(ii) No member of the Academic Staff or Chairman of the Department shall proceed abroad or leave station for these purposes without the prior permission of the Vice-Chancellor, failing which he would be considered as absent from duty.

11. Leaves

(i) Casual Leave:

(a) Classes A, B and C:

(1) Casual leave cannot be claimed as a matter of right, but can be granted at the discretion of the Head of the office or the department as the case may be.

(2) Normally 10 days' [casual leave] in the year may be granted; but on special grounds, the granting authority may sanction casual leave for 25 days in a year with a maximum of 10 days at a time.

[Provided that casual leave admissible to Officer of Class 'A' (above the scale of Administrative Officer) who had been confirmed as such prior to 21 March 1971, and who are entitled to special leave under Statute (v) below, shall not exceed 20 days in a year]

1. Casual leave cannot be combined with any other leave. It can be combined with holidays provided the total period, including holidays, does not exceed ten days. (Syndicate 9 February, 1940 paragraph 4.)

2. Chancellor's No. OSD(Univ.)1/19-70, dated 8 November, 1971. (Notified vide Registrar's No. 1547/G.M. dated 16 November 1971.)
(b) Class 'D'.

(1) The grant of leave to an employee of Class 'D' shall be at the discretion of the Head of the Institution to which he is attached.

[(2) Twenty-five days' casual leave will be allowed during the year, but not more than six days' casual leave at a time]¹

(ii) Anti-Rabic Leave:

Leave for anti-rabic treatment may be granted for one month on production of a certificate from the Hospital (Anti-Rabic). The employee will be considered on duty and as such will draw his actual pay and not leave allowance.

(iii) Quarantine Leave:

If an employee or any member of his family living with him is suffering from any infectious disease, such as measles, smallpox, cholera, plague, etc., quarantine leave may be granted up to a limit of one month on production of a certificate from the [University Chief Medical Officer]² The employee will be considered on duty and shall be eligible to draw full pay.

(iv) Leave on Half Average Pay:

If no casual leave or privilege leave is due, then, in exceptional circumstances, leave on half pay may be granted for a period not exceeding 10 days in the year, at the discretion of the Vice-Chancellor.

(v) Special Casual Leave:

[During the months of July, August and September, special casual leave (as noted below) may be sanctioned to Officers of Class 'A' (above the rank of Administrative Officer) belonging to Non-vacation Departments of the University:-

(i) two leave of 10 days each; or

(ii) one leave of 15 days]³

[Provided arrangements to the satisfaction of the Vice-Chancellor are made during such special leave.]⁴

Provided further that special leave shall be admissible only to the Officers of Class `A' (above the rank of Administrative Officer) who had been confirmed as such prior to 21 March, 1971. All others shall be allowed to avail themselves of summer spell by debit to their casual leave account. In other words not more than 25 days casual leave including the leave that an Officer might avail himself of during summer months under this Statute.

(vi) Privilege Leave:

(a) Class `A':

Leave under the following Statutes may be granted to Officers of Class `A' by the Syndicate:

(1) During the regular annual University vacation an Officer may be absent from Lahore, provided that arrangements to the satisfaction of the Vice-Chancellor are made for carrying on the duties of his office during his absence.

(2) If, owing to the requirements of the University, an officer is in any year prevented due to exigencies of services, from enjoying the whole or any part of the vacation, he may be granted privilege leave on full pay, in lieu thereof, for such period not exceeding one month for a year subject to a maximum of four months at a time, as the Syndicate may determine.

Provided that in all such cases the Chairman, of the Department concerned shall obtain the approval, in writing, of the Vice-Chancellor before the commencement of the annual vacations.

(3) All non-vacation officers shall be allowed one month's privilege leave on full pay for every year of service, subject to a maximum of four months at a time, as the Syndicate may direct. This Statute shall have retrospective effect in the case of all non-vacation officers who were in the service of the University on 25 April, 1941.

(b) Classes B & C:-

Leave under the following Statutes may be granted to Officers of Classes `B' and `C' by the Vice-Chancellor. The grant of leave is subject to the condition that it can be granted without detriment to the business of the University:

(1) If any officer of Classes `B' and `C' is permitted by the Vice-Chancellor to be absent during the annual University vacation, such officer shall not be entitled to privilege leave. Any such officer who is not permitted by the Vice-Chancellor to be absent during such vacation may be granted privilege leave not exceeding one month after eleven months, two months after twenty-two months and three months after thirty-three months continuous active service.

Full pay may be granted to an officer while on privilege leave.
Such leave may be combined with furlough or leave on medical certificate.

(2) All non-vacation officers shall be allowed one month's privilege leave on full pay for every year of service, subject to a maximum of four months at a time, as the Vice-Chancellor may direct. The Statute shall have retrospective effect in the case of all non-vacation officers at present (25 April, 1941) in the service of the University. Such leave may be combined with furlough or leave on medical certificate.

(c) Class 'D':-

(1) Servants in permanent employ shall be allowed one month's earned leave on full pay for every year of service, subject to maximum of four months at a time. Any period earned in excess of four months shall be credited to a separate item in the leave account from which leave may be allowed on average pay on medical certificate or for the purpose of pilgrimage outside Pakistan.

(2) The amount of leave on average pay that may be taken at one time shall not exceed four months. This limit may be raised to six months when leave in excess of four months is taken on medical certificate or for the purpose of pilgrimage outside Pakistan.

(3) Leave on half average pay shall be earned at the rate of one month for each year of duty and accumulation of such leave shall be without limit. Such leave shall not be allowed except on medical certificate. It shall be permissible to convert leave on half average pay into leave on average pay at the rate of one day of leave on average pay for two days of leave on half average pay up to a maximum of twelve months on average pay.

(4) Temporary servants who have put in less than three years' service, will earn leave at the rate of 1/30th of the period spent on duty. Accumulation of such leave shall be up to a maximum of 20 days.

(5) 'D' Class employees working in the vacation departments shall, however, be governed by the following rules:–

(i) Leave on average pay to a servant in respect of any year in which he is prevented from availing himself of the full vacation shall be such proportion of thirty days as the number of days of vacation not taken bears to the full vacation.

(ii) If, in any year, the servant does not avail himself of the vacation, leave on average pay shall be permissible to him in respect of that year as if he was in a non-vacation Department.

(iii) The servant shall be entitled to earn and avail himself of leave on half average pay like other servants.

(6) A servant in a vacation Department who is not in permanent employ shall, with effect from the date on which he completes 3 years’ continuous temporary service or on which he is appointed substantively to a permanent post, whichever is earlier, be treated for the purpose of leave as a servant in permanent employ and his leave account at the same time shall be credited with the amount of leave which would have been admissible to him had he been in permanent employ in a vacation Department from the date he joined temporary service, such credit being diminished by the amount of leave already taken.¹

2 (1) (i) An Officer, desiring to prosecute higher studies abroad on a scholarship fellowship, bursary, etc. awarded to him for this purpose and holding permanently a teaching or an administrative post in the University, may be granted study leave for a period not exceeding four years in all, provided it is due to him. All others will be treated on leave without pay.

(ii) Study leave in the first instance may be granted for two years. Further extension may be allowed on receipt of satisfactory progress report from the Supervisor or Professor under whose supervision the officer is working. Leave for the fourth year may also be granted under exceptional circumstances and on good reports. Unconfirmed employees should be treated on leave without pay.

(iii) Such a person should be required to execute a bond on a stamped paper to the effect that, on his return from leave, he shall serve the University for at least five years. In case of his failure to serve the University for at least five years, he shall pay to the University the amount of liquidated damages specified below:

(a) Where the training period is six months or less Rs. 1,50,000/-
(b) Where the training period exceeds six months but does not exceed one year, Rs. 2,00,000/-
(c) Where the training period exceeds one year but does not exceed two years, Rs. 5,00,000/-
(d) Where the training period exceeds two years but does not exceed three years, Rs. 10,00,000/-

*Approved by the syndicate dated 2.8.1997.

(iv) Amount of liquidated damages may be got reduced by the Syndicate in the case of a University employee who is treated on leave without pay.

(iv) The Head of Department concerned should lay down the course/degree for which a University employee is sent abroad. The employees should stick to the course/degree for which he is sent abroad. After the completion of the course, the employee should return to the University and should not prolong his stay abroad by joining another course.

(vi) If the scholarship, fellowship, etc., of a University employee sent abroad is extended, the leave granted to him may also be extended. But no extension in leave should be granted, if the employee wants to prolong his stay abroad on the basis of another scholarship, fellowship, etc.

definite recommendation of the Supervisor study leave may be extended for the third year or part thereof, by the Syndicate. In special cases, the leave may be extended for the fourth year or part thereof with the sanction of the Syndicate on the basis of satisfactory progress report and a definite recommendation by the Supervisor. The amended Statute shall have retrospective effect from 23 August 1962.

In case of an officer retiring from or otherwise leaving the service within five years of the expiry of the leave, an amount equivalent to what that officer has drawn as study leave allowance shall be forfeited and the study leave shall, at the discretion of the Syndicate, be converted into furlough to the extent of the furlough standing to his credit at the date of retiring from, or leaving, the service.

This leave may be combined with vacation or furlough or both, but shall not count as service for furlough or any other leave.

Provided further that if an officer does not show satisfactory progress in his studies, the Syndicate, may at its discretion, cancel the study leave granted to him and withdraw all other privileges. This, however, will not apply to a person, who is unable to show satisfactory progress on account of illness, or because of other circumstances beyond his control.

(viii) Furlough:

(a) Class 'A'

(1) The grant of furlough is subject to the condition that it can be granted without detriment to the business of the University.

(2) The furlough earned shall be deemed to be one-ninth of an officer's active service, provided that:

(a) Furlough may not be granted until the officer applying for it has completed 4 years' active service;

(b) furlough may not be granted again until the expiry of three years from the date of such officer's last return from furlough;

(c) not more than two years' furlough may be granted at one time;

(d) not more than six months' furlough may be granted to an officer after he has attained the age of retirement in respect of his previous service;

(e) not more than six months' furlough for any period of service after the age of 55 years.

(3) Furlough may be granted in combination with vacation or privilege leave and in combination with leave without pay in special cases, at the discretion of the Syndicate.

(b) Classes 'B' and 'C'

The furlough earned shall be deemed to be one-twelfth of an officer's active service, provided that:-

(a) Furlough may not be granted until the officer applying for it has completed six years' active service;

(b) furlough may not be granted again until the expiry of six years from the date of such officer's last return from furlough;

(c) no officer shall earn more than two years' furlough in the whole of his service;

(d) not more than six months' furlough may be granted to an officer after he has attained the age of retirement in respect of his previous service;

(e) not more than six months' furlough for any period of service after the age of 55 years.

(ix) Medical leave:

(a) Class 'A'

Leave on medical certificate may be granted to an officer at any time, subject to such limitations and conditions as the Syndicate may, in each instance in which such leave is applied for, determine.

(b) Classes 'B' and 'C'

Leave on medical certificate may be granted to an officer at any time, subject to such limitations and conditions as the Vice-Chancellor may, in each instance in which such leave is applied for, determine.

[Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Statutes, medical leave on full pay may be sanctioned to an employee subject to the following conditions:-

(a) that he has earned the furlough under Statute (viii)(a) or (viii)(b).

(b) that double the period of medical leave shall be debited to the furlough account of the employee;

(c) that not more than four months' medical leave under this Statute shall be sanctioned at any one time;]
(d) that the medical leave sanctioned under this Statute may be combined with summer vacation or any other type of leave, provided that the total period of leave on full pay so granted shall not exceed 7 months at a time.

These provisions shall take effect from the 1st January, 1963.

(x) Subsidiary: Class `A':

In the case of furlough or leave on medical certificate taken out of Pakistan subsidiary leave, not exceeding ten days on any one occasion of taking such subsidiary leave, may be granted to the officer for the interval between the date of the quitting his office and the date on which he embarks at the port of departure from Pakistan and the interval between his landing in Pakistan and rejoining his appointment.

(xi) [Extra-ordinary without pay: Classes `A', `B', `C' and `D']

2. (i) When leave without pay is sanctioned by proper authority it shall not constitute a break in one’s service nor effect his seniority, but the date of increment shall be delayed by the period of absence on such leave.

(Syndicate, 25 October 1946, para 42.)

(ii) (a) Leave without pay for purposes of serving elsewhere be not ordinarily granted for a period of more than three years. Extension beyond the period of three years be given very sparingly in such cases in which the Head of the Department certified that the work would not suffer if extension beyond three years was allowed. (Syndicate dated 26 January, 1977 para 2).

(b) Officers intending to go abroad for higher studies be treated on leave without pay for such periods as the Syndicate may determine in each case.

(c) Employees who were selected for employment in International Agency/[Foreign Countries]* may be granted leave without pay by the Syndicate for the period as the circumstances may warrant but not exceeding 3 years at any one time, but in special circumstances it could be extended upto five years. (Syndicate, 19 December, 1970, paragraph 17 and Syndicate 3 September, 1983 para 40 respectively.)

*Syndicate, 24 March, 1972, Paragraph 3(4).

(d) [An employee may be allowed to continue against his assignment abroad even after the expiry of 5 years on the request of the employee or his employer. In all such cases, the officer’s/employee’s name will be removed from the existing seniority list and place of the separate static list with no claim to promotion or to seniority over any junior who will be promoted during this period. An officer’s name would be brought back on the seniority list only after he resumes duty on return. In such cases also the office must earn a confident ional report for one full year before he is considered for promotion. If approved for promotion, he will not regain his seniority. He will be assigned seniority in the higher post only from the date he assumes its charge.]

Notified vide Registrar’s No. 126/G.S. dated 5-12-1997.
Provided that the competent authority i.e. Finance Department in consultation with the Administrative Department, may in case it is satisfied that extra ordinary leave was taken (i) on account of illness or (ii) for higher studies if it is certified by the Administrative Department that the course of study will be useful for the Department or (iii) for any other cause beyond the Government servant’s control, direct that EOL shall be counted for increment under sub clauses(ii) and (iii) of this clause."

(xii) Temporary Employees:

(1) A temporary University employee who had rendered three years or longer continuous temporary service on the 13th October, 1955, shall, for the purposes of these Statutes, be treated as a University servant in permanent employ, and if he elects these Statutes, shall be subject to the provisions of these Statutes with effect from the 14th October, 1955.

(2) A temporary University employee who had not completed three years on the 13th October, 1955, or one who joined or may join University service after that date shall, with effect from the date on which he completes three years' continuous temporary service, or on which he is appointed substantively to a permanent post, whichever is earlier, be treated for the purposes of leave as a University servant in permanent employ, and his leave account at the same time shall be credited with the amount of leave which would have been admissible to him under these Statutes had he been in permanent employ from 14th October, 1955, or if he joined service after that date from the date he joined service, such credit being diminished by the amount of leave already taken.

(xiii) Persons appointed on contract:

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Statutes all persons appointed on a contract shall be governed by the same leave Statutes as are provided for other permanent employees of the University unless anything to the contrary is provided in the agreement.

(xiv) Persons proceeding abroad on Scholarships granted by the Provincial/Federal/Foreign Government/Agency:

The Syndicate may, at its discretion, grant privilege leave, furlough or study leave due to an employee falling under the category subject to the condition laid down in the Statutes. For the rest of the period, however, the employee would be entitled only to extraordinary leave without pay. Employees who have neither any furlough or study leave nor any privilege leave at their credit would be granted only extraordinary leave without pay.

(xv) Study Tour:

Only senior persons may be permitted to proceed on study tour subject to following conditions:-

(a) Study tour would normally be for a period of four months, but in no case should it exceed six months.

(b) Persons proceeding on study tour will be permitted to visit only one country. However, in case an officer desired to avail himself of the facilities offered by various airlines he might do so and break the journey wherever permissible, but shall have to meet additional expenditure from his own pocket.

(c) In very special circumstances, the Syndicate may, at its discretion, grant study leave to an officer who has been sent abroad on study tour and also permit him to combine this with summer vacation.

(d) Persons, proceeding on study tour, would be treated on duty and paid full salary in Pakistan.

(e) As far as payment of compensatory allowance during their stay abroad was concerned they could be governed by the rates approved by the Punjab Government for its employees from time to time.

(f) They would be paid actual fare from Lahore to port of embarkation and would not be entitled to draw daily allowance or extra railway fare.

(xvi) Rest and Recreation Leave/Allowance:

As from Ist of July, 1983, Rest and Recreation Allowance shall cease to be admissible to an employee of the University who draws pay in the Basic Pay Scales, vide Notification No. FD.PC.2-1/83, dated 25 August, 1983, issued by the Finance Department, Government of the Punjab.

(xvii) General Provisions:

(1) Furlough and leave on medical certificate taken in Pakistan shall be reckoned from the date on which the officer quits his office to the date on which he resumes office. Furlough and leave on medical certificate taken out of Pakistan shall be reckoned from the date of embarkation at the port of departure from Pakistan to the date of debarkation at the port of arrival on return to Pakistan.

(2) The monthly allowance to be granted to an officer of Class A while on subsidiary leave and furlough shall be a sum equal to half his average monthly salary, payable for the period spent out of Pakistan at the current rate of exchange. In the case of an Officer taking leave on medical certificate, the rate of the monthly allowance (if any) to be granted to him shall be such as the Syndicate may, in each instance, determine but shall not exceed the rate allowable in the case of furlough.
(3) Leave allowances, wherever payable, shall be paid monthly in the first week of the succeeding month.

(4) If the officer overstays his leave, he shall forfeit all his salary during the time of his remaining so absent, and if he overstays his leave for more than one week, his office shall be liable to be declared vacant.

(5) The monthly allowance to be granted to an officer of Classes B and C, while on furlough shall be a sum equal to half his average monthly salary. In the case of an officer taking leave on medical certificate, the rate of the monthly allowance (if any) to be granted to him shall be such as the Vice-Chancellor may, in each instance, determine, but shall not exceed half his average monthly salary for the first six months of such leave, or one quarter of his average monthly salary for any longer period.

(6) [For every three days an employee comes late to the University Office or leaves his seat without prior approval of the Head of the Department/Incharge of the Branch concerned, one casual leave/privilege leave shall be debited to his leave account]¹

(7) [Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Statutes regarding the grant of leave/furlough to the University employees, all leave earned by a University employee during the tenure of his service shall lapse if he resigns or if his services are terminated or if he is retired compulsorily.]²

(xviii) Leave preparatory to retirement:

The maximum period upto which a University employee may be granted leave preparatory to retirement shall be 365 days. It may be taken subject to availability, either on full pay or partly on full pay and partly on half pay, or entirely on half pay at the discretion of the University employee.

(xix) Special Leave:

A female University employee on the death of her husband, may be granted special leave on full pay, when applied for, not exceeding 130 days. This leave shall not be debited to her leave-account.

(xx) Disability Leave:

Leave salary during disability leave shall be equal to full pay for the first 180 days and half pay for the balance period.

(xxi) Encashment of refused leave:

(a) If in case of retirement on attaining the age of superannuation a University employee cannot for reasons of public service, be granted leave preparatory to retirement due to him, duly applied for in sufficient time he will in lieu thereof be granted lumpsum leave pay for the leave refused to him subject to a maximum of 180 days leave on full pay.

(b) Ordinarily leave preparatory to retirement shall not be refused. All orders refusing leave preparatory to retirement to a University employee and recalling a University employee from leave preparatory to retirement shall be passed only by the authorities specified below:-

1. For University employee of grade 17 and above: Syndicate
2. For University Employee of grade 16 and below: Vice-Chancellor.

The above authorities shall not further delegate these powers to another authority.

17. Pension:

[(1) (a) These statutes may be called the Punjab University Services Pension Statutes.]

(b) These statutes shall have effect from 1st July 1968.

(2) (a) In these statutes, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions shall have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say:-

"Head of Department" means the Head of the University Teaching or administrative department and includes the Principal of a constituent college and Director of an Institute.

1. Approved vide paragraph 6(B)(2), Syndicate dated 20 June, 1969.

"Medical Authority" means an authority appointed to conduct medical examination of University servants for the purpose of granting invalid pension, extraordinary pension or commutation of pension. This authority shall be:-

(i) The University Chief Medical Officer in respect of employees of Classes 'C' and 'D'.

(ii) A standing Medical Board consisting of not less than two Medical Officers to be appointed by the Syndicate in respect of officers of class "B".

(iii) A standing Medical Board consisting of not less than three Medical Officers to be appointed by the Syndicate in respect of officers of class "A".

(b) If any question of interpretation of these statutes arises, such interpretation shall be made by the Syndicate of the Punjab University with reference to the West Pakistan Civil Services Pension Rules for the time being in force.

(3) Extent of application - Unless in any case it be otherwise expressly provided, these Statutes shall apply to:-

(i) all University servants under the rule-making control of the Punjab University who entered University service on or after the 1st July, 1968;

(ii) all University servants who were in service on and before 1st July, 1968 unless they opt to continue to be governed by the existing Provident Fund Statutes applicable to them;

(iii) all employees who retired from University service after 1 July, 1968 but before the date of publication of these Statutes, if they opt to be governed by these Statutes.

Note: In the case of University servants or retired employees who were in service on the 1 July, 1968 but died before the publication of these Statutes, it will be assumed that they opted for these Statutes. Provided that if the amount of Provident Fund standing at the credit of a deceased employee is more than the total amount of family pension admissible to his dependents he shall be deemed to have opted for the Provident Fund.

(4) Option: University servants and retired officials mentioned in clauses (ii) and (iii) of statute (3) above may exercise option within a period of 6 months from the date of publication of these statutes in the West Pakistan Gazette. The option shall be communicated in writing to the Treasurer and the option once so exercised shall be final. University servants who fail to exercise option within the stipulated period shall be assumed to have opted for the Punjab University Services Pension Statutes.

Note: The Treasurer should acknowledge the receipt of options communicated to him by University servants.
Explanations:

(a) A University Servant can only opt either for these statutes or for the Provident Fund Statutes. It is not open to him to opt for the Provident Fund Statutes for a part or parts of his service and for these statutes for the remaining part or parts thereof.

(b) No other gratuity, bonus, stipends or annuities can be granted to the University employees or their families under any other statutes on the adoption/application of these statutes.

(c) (i) The amount subscribed to the Provident Fund by a University servant who opts for these statutes or who does not or fails to opt for the Provident Fund Statutes within the stipulated period shall be refunded to him along with the amount of interest accrued thereon unless he declares that the amount at his credit may be refunded and may be treated as voluntary fund, and the service rendered by him from the date of his joining the University service or the date of attaining the age of 20 years, whichever is later, shall, subject to the statutes for reckoning the qualifying pension for service count as service for pension and the provisions of the Provident Fund Statutes shall cease to be applicable to him.

(ii) The amount contributed by the University to the Provident Fund of a University servant who opts for these statutes or who does not or fails to opt for the Provident Fund Statutes within the stipulated period shall be surrendered to the University along with the amount of interest accrued thereon;

Provided that the provision of above clauses, i.e. (i) and (ii) will not apply to the University servants who are appointed on contract for a limited period and have been extended the benefit of Provident Fund under the terms and conditions of their appointment.

(d) A University servant who, at the time of issue of these statutes, is out of Pakistan or is on leave, may exercise his option and communicate it within 6 months from the date of his return from leave or deputation abroad. If he does not exercise and communicate his option within the prescribed limit, he shall be deemed to have accepted the pensionary benefits.

(e) The employees mentioned in statutes (3)(iii) above have to surrender 50% of the Provident Fund along with the interest thereon and the entire amount of the gratuity etc., received before deriving the pensionary benefits.
(5) These statutes shall not apply to:

(i) University servants paid from contingencies or borne on workcharged Establishment;

(ii) University servants engaged on contract which contains no stipulation for pension under these statutes;

(iii) any person for whose appointment and conditions of service, special provisions is made by or under any law for the time being in force;

(iv) any University servant or class of University servants who may be excluded by the Syndicate from the application of these rules;

(v) any University servant who holds a post which has been declared by the Syndicate to be non-pensionable;

(vi) any person whose whole time is not retained for University service but is merely paid for work done, such as part-time lecturers, scrutineers, etc;

(vii) any person who is not paid from the University fund, but is paid from a fund held by the University as a Trustee, or from any other local fund or is remunerated by fees for the grant of a tenure of land or of any other source of revenue or of a right to collect money.

(6) Except where express provision has been made in these statutes The West Pakistan, Civil Service Pension Rules, 1963, as applicable to West Pakistan Government servants and amended from time to time shall apply mutatis mutandis to the University servants.

(7) There shall be maintained a Pension Fund, to the credit whereof shall be placed:

(a) [The amounts contributed by the University to provident fund accounts of the University servants who have under these statutes opted for pension system; and

(b) Such contribution per month for every University servant as would have been payable by the University under the provident fund system;

(c) Such employees, as had been permitted to work in outside organizations within the country or their employers, may be allowed to contribute towards their pension, group insurance, benevolent fund, etc. as per rules for the purpose of counting their period of Foreign Service towards pension;

(d) Such employees as had been allowed to work in foreign countries or their employees may be allowed to contribute toward their pension, group insurance, benevolent fund, etc. in foreign exchange as per rules for the purpose of counting their period of Foreign Service towards pension.
(e) The decision taken may be made applicable to all employees as are presently on Foreign Service or had been on Foreign Service but have now rejoined their duties in the University.]

(8) The authority competent to sanction the grant of pension shall be the authority competent to fill the post vacated by the servant of the University retiring on pension.

(9) If a University servant is aggrieved by an order passed under statute (8), he may appeal to the authority competent to have heard the appeal, if he were removed or dismissed from the University service immediately before his retirement, and the provision of the rules regulating appeals for removal or dismissal shall apply mutatis mutandis to appeals under this statute.

(10) If the amount in the Pension Fund is surplus to the requirements for the purposes of pension, the surplus fund may be invested with the previous sanction of the Syndicate, in such manner as may be necessary, and if the Pension Fund is running short of the requirements for the purposes of pension, the Syndicate may require the University to raise its contribution to the Pension Fund under clause (b) of Statute 7 to such extent as may be specified.

(11) All pensions shall be paid out of the Pension Fund maintained under Statute (7)

(12) All formalities for the grant of pension shall be completed as expeditiously as possible, so that the University servant retiring on Pension starts getting his pension regularly within three months of his retirement; provided that if due to unavoidable circumstances such period is to be exceeded the authority competent to grant the pension shall sanction anticipatory pension for the interim period.]

[(13) Counting of service rendered in one University toward total length of service in another University for purposes of pension:--

In the case of persons who had been transferred from this University and who had taken up appointment in other University/Government Organization, their pension contribution upto that date be remitted to their present employers.]

[(14) Grant of Pensionary Benefits to the Employees of Autonomous/ semi-autonomous organizations on regular appointments to posts in government:

Government of Pakistan Finance Division Regulation Wing II Islamabad vide its office memorandum No. F.5(9)-R-7/85-1221 dated 22-10-1985 had notified that in case of employees of autonomous body/semi-autonomous organizations who joined service in a government department through proper channel, the concerned autonomous/semi-autonomous organization might make payment of pension contribution to the government at the prescribed rate as indicated in the division’s O.M. No. F(5) Regd. 7/79-1407, subject to the following conditions:--

1. Approved by the senate at its meeting held on 14-7-1999.

2. Approved by the Chancellor vide Punjab Government Education Department No. S.O. Univ. 1/38-68 dated 8

(i) The appointment of the individual concerned in the government department was made with the consent of the Head of the autonomous organization and with the approval of the competent authority in government department concerned, in accordance with the normal procedure for making such appointment.

(ii) The regular employees of the autonomous organization concerned are entitled under specific rules of the organization for the purpose, to the same benefits of pension/gratuity as are admissible to the civil servants of the federal government, and the employees concerned had rendered qualifying service for pension/gratuity in his parent organization before his appointment in the government department concerned.

(iii) Such appointments under the government shall be treated as fresh appointments and incumbents will be allowed the benefits of previous service rendered in the autonomous/semi-autonomous organization for the purpose of pension only. Their seniority will be reckoned from the date of appointment under the Government Department concerned.

These orders will be effective from the date of issue. However, these will also cover, subject to the conditions specified above, past cases of those employees of government who rendered service in an autonomous/semi-autonomous organization and have not proceeded on normal retirement before the date of their office memorandum.]1

[18. Additional Pension:

A retiring officer in BPS-20 and above will be allowed a special additional pension equal to the admissible pre-retirement orderly allowance.]2

20. [GRANT OF ADVANCE TO UNIVERSITY EMPLOYEES FOR BUILDING/PURCHASING A HOUSE.]

1. An advance to build a house may be sanctioned by the University to a permanent employee with not less than five years' service.

2. The benefit of the advance would be available for construction of a house anywhere in Pakistan.

3. No advance shall be permissible to an employee who was likely to retire before complete recovery of the amount of advance.

4. The advance shall be drawn by instalments, the amount, of each instalment being such as is likely to be required for expenditure in the next three months satisfactory evidence shall be produced to show that the amount of the instalment has been actually utilised for the purpose for which it was drawn before the next instalment is paid.

Provided further that if the amount to be advanced for house building is very meager (below Rs. 3,500/-) it may be paid in two instalments. The second instalment may be advanced when receipts showing the first advance having been spent in full have been produced.

5. No advance shall exceed 24 months pay of the employee to whom it is paid.

6. All advances must be bonafide requirement for the purpose of building a suitable house for the personal residences of the employee and if more is advanced than is actually expended for the purpose, the surplus shall be refunded to the University on demand.

7. An employee shall get no more than one advance for the same house, and no employee shall receive a second advance while any portion of a previous advance with interest accrued thereon is outstanding against him.

8. [Simple interest at the rate specially fixed by the Vice-Chancellor for the purpose shall be charged on the advance for house building (including advance for the purchase and repair of a house)]

9. Advance shall be recovered by deducting monthly instalments, extending over a period of not more than 120 months from the pay bill of the employees concerned. The authority sanctioning an advance may, however, permit recovery to be made in smaller number of instalments if the employee receiving the advance so desires. The re-payment of advance shall commence from the fourth issue of pay after the first instalment is taken. The amount of interest shall be recovered in one or more instalments each such instalment

2. The Finance and Planning Committee/Syndicate at their meetings held on 24 November, 1981 and 14 April 1983 respectively decided that interest on House Building/Purchasing be charged as under:

   (a) The Notification No. FD(FR)V1-25/78 dated 24 March, 1979 issued by the Government of the Punjab, Finance Department for. not charging interest from the employees in NPS-1 to NPS-15 be made applicable in the University of the Punjab Mutatis Mutandis.

   (b) University Officers in NPS-16 and above be charged 5% per annum simple interest on house building loans and advances.
being not appreciably greater than the instalments by which the principal was recovered. The recovery of interest will commence from the month following that in which the whole of the principal has been repaid.

10. In order to secure the University from loss consequent upon an employee dying or quitting the service before complete re-payment of the advance with interest, the house so built together with the land it stands upon, must be mortgaged to the University. The mortgaged property shall be released on liquidation of the full amount due.

Note: An employee who is given an advance for the construction of a house shall execute an agreement in the prescribed form of mortgage for house building advance which shall be registered before the advance is drawn by him. In case advance is given for purchase of a house, the agreement shall be executed in the prescribed form of agreement and shall be registered within one month of its execution.

11. The employee must satisfy the sanctioning authority regarding his title to the land upon which the house has been or is to be built.

12. Application for the advance must be made to the Treasurer who will record his opinion as to the necessity for the assistance solicited. The applicant must certify that the sum is to be expended on building purpose only. The balance shall finally be sanctioned by the Vice-Chancellor.

13. Advance may also be made to employees for purchase of house. In this case the advance may be drawn in full at once but satisfactory evidence should be produced before the Authority sanctioning the advance to show that the amount advanced has been spent on the purchase within three months of its drawal. The re-payment will commence with the pay of the following month in which the advance is drawn. Before the advance is drawn, the sanctioning authority should record on the bill a certificate that he has secured and retained with him an agreement in PFR form 19, signed by the applicant pending execution of the final mortgage bond after the house is actually purchased. The mortgage bond form should form an annexure to the Punjab University rules.

14. Advance for repair to a house may be made on the following conditions:-

(1) An advance may be made only if (i) the repairs are required to make the house habitable (ii) they are not in the nature of ordinary repairs and (iii) they involve an outlay large in comparison with the value of the house.

(2) Not more than one advance is admissible in respect of the same house.

(3) No advance shall exceed six months' pay of the employee to whom it is made.

(4) An advance if required for the house built/purchased out of the advance already drawn under Statutes 1 and 13 above will only be admissible if at least five years had elapsed since the previous advance was drawn.

(5) Subject to other general principles of Statutes regarding application, sanction and drawal of advance, the re-payment of this advance will be made within two years.
(6) The advance shall be liable to interest at the rate fixed by the Vice-Chancellor under Statute 8.

15. If an advance is obtained for building a house at Lahore, the employee shall forfeit his right to residential accommodation provided by the University 8 years after the date on which the advance was drawn and in the case of an advance for the purchase of a house, he shall forfeit his right to residential accommodation 8 years after the date of purchase. If he continues to remain in occupation of the accommodation after the period mentioned above, he shall be liable to pay rent at the rate of 27% of his pay.

16. Application form to be prescribed for the purpose and Draft Agreement to be executed by the employees are also at Annexure I & II.

(a) Provision of spectacles.

(b) Provision of denture and other cosmetic treatment of the teeth.

(3) (i) The University employees shall be entitled free of charge to medical attendance by the authorized Medical Attendant.

(ii) Where a University employee is entitled under sub-rule (i) free of charge, to receive medical treatment, any amount paid by him on account of such medical treatment shall, on production of a certificate in writing by the Chief Medical Officer in this behalf, be re-imbursed to him by the University.

(4) Ordinarily, the medical treatment shall be available to the employees and their families in Lahore only. In special circumstances, however, the Vice-Chancellor may, for reasons to be recorded, permit an employee to receive treatment at a place outside Lahore but within the country on the recommendations of the Chief Medical Officer.

[Provided that if an employee proceeds abroad either on study leave or on leave without pay for higher studies or is otherwise deputed abroad on duty, his family shall be entitled to free medical treatment including hospitalization in a Government or a recognised hospital at their place of residence in or outside Lahore but within the country]

(5) In cases of emergency if the authorised Medical Attendant is of the opinion that the case of a patient is of such a serious nature or of a special nature as to require medical attendance by some persons other than himself he may:

(a) send the patient to the nearest specialist or to a recognised hospital where, in his opinion, such a treatment is available;

(b) if the patient is too ill to travel, the authorised Medical Attendant may request such a specialist to attend upon the patient.

(6) The patient shall be entitled free of charge:

(a) to treatment at the University Clinic, at his residence or in a hospital recognised by the University.

(b) The patient, who, in the opinion of the authorised Medical attendant, requires hospitalization shall be entitled to get admission to a private ward or room in case he is in Basic Pay Scale No. 17 or above. All others shall be entitled to get admission in the general wards.

1. Approved by the Syndicate vide paragraph 1 of its proceedings dated 12 June, 1965, statement 'A'/16.
(c) Where the patient is hospitalized, any amount paid by him on account of such treatment, on production of a certificate in writing by the Chief Medical Officer in this behalf, be reimbursed to him by the University on presentation of receipts issued to him by the recognised hospital. The charges of diet, if any, levied by the hospital, shall be borne by the patient himself.

(7) If the authorised medical attendant is of the opinion that a patient can be given treatment at his residence, the University employee shall be entitled to reimbursement of the cost of such treatment on production of actual payee's receipt duly certified by the Chief Medical Officer.

(8) If the husband of an employee is employed elsewhere or is retired, her children shall not be entitled to get medical assistance from the University. Similarly, if the wife of a University employee is employed elsewhere in Government or in a Semi-Government institution or in any other organization, she shall not be entitled to receive treatment from the University. However, children of the University employee whose wife is employed elsewhere will be entitled to receive treatment from the University.

(9) The family of the University employee shall be entitled, free of charge, to medical attendance and treatment on the scale and under the conditions allowed to the University employee himself. This, however, shall not include confinement and antenatal care.

(10) These rules shall also apply to retired employees who have put in at least fifteen years continuous whole-time service before retirement subject to the following conditions:-

(a) Relief shall be admissible only for treatment at the University Clinic or in a hospital in Lahore recognised by the University.

(b) The medical treatment is restricted to retired University employee, his wife and minor children. Earning wife and earning children will not be entitled.

(c) These rules shall also apply to the family of the deceased University employee. Non-working wife and minor children (non-earning) of the deceased shall be entitled to treatment from the University.

[(11) The children of the University employees will be provided medical facilities upto the age of 25 years or until the child is married or starts earning his/her living independently whichever is earlier

(12) No age limit will be imposed for provision of medical facility to the disabled children of the University Employees/Teachers, as they remained dependent on parents for whole of their life.]\(^1\)
