

GEOG. 434 CAPSTONE PROJECT/ RESEARCH REPORT

Learning Objective

To expose students to do practical work in a real-world situation to bridge the gap between theory and practice by writing a report independently. Learn communication skills by presenting it in a seminar.

Internship project outline

Internship with any public, private sector, district governments, national /international organization, inter university linkages, academic and research institutions, NGO, CBO, CCBs or Group Survey with report and its presentation in a seminar.

Research Report Format:

Introduction

- Background
- The Problem
- Research Questions
- Hypothesis
- Objectives
- Significance
- Historical Context

Methodological Framework

- Data Sources
- Data Quality

Data Uncertainty and Limitations

- Methods
- Techniques, Models, Sampling
- Accuracy Assessments
- Qualitative data (Questionnaire)
- In-situ Observation (Field Records)

Review of Literature

- General, Issue Specific, Technique Specific

Results & Discussion

Conclusion

- Suggestion/Recommendations

References