University of the Punjab, Lahore

Course Outline

Program	BS Gender Studies	Course Code	GS-134	Credit Hours	3
Course Title	Gender and Media
Course Introduction
This course explores the complex relationship between gender and media. It examines how media representations of gender shape cultural perceptions and individual identities. Through critical analysis of various media forms—including film, television, advertising, social media, and news—students will learn to identify and critique gender stereotypes, biases, and roles. The course also considers the impact of intersectionality, addressing how race, class, sexuality, and other factors intersect with gender in media portrayals.
Learning Outcomes
On the completion of the course, the students will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understand key concepts and theories related to gender and media. • Analyze media representations of gender across different platforms and genres. • Explore the historical and cultural contexts of gender portrayals in media. • Critically evaluate the impact of media on gender identity and societal norms. • Examine the role of intersectionality in media representations of gender.
