Course: Drawing-I   BFAT-111   Credit hr: 3 P

Objective:

The course intends to set up the students to develop drawing skill with pencil and paper. They are required to draw skillfully the nature and other objects. This will further help them to develop ability to draw better designs.

Content:

The course is designed on the still life sketching. This will be the major part of this semester's course so that the students are able to see and sketch what is in front of them. They will also be introduced to the nature studies so that they become fluent at drawing down what they see.

Course: Introduction to Computers II   Credit Hrs: 2 T+P

Objectives:

This course is related to the introduction to computer. Its objective is to make the students friendly with the mechanics of the computer, the hardware and the software.

Contents:

The aim of this subject is to develop the students intellectual. Skills related to the digital technology. So the assignments should be written about the basic knowledge of computer parts and later the students should be given hand on training about different softwares like photoshop, coral draw, word etc.

Suggested Reading:

Smart Textiles and Their Applications by ValdanKoncar
Designing with Smart Textiles by Sarah Kettley
Smart Textiles for Protection by RM Chapman
Handbook of Smart Textiles by Xiaoming Tao

Textile Technology by Barbara lawler, Helen Wilson 2002

Coated and Laminated Textiles by Walter Fung 2002

Smart Textiles and Their Applications by ValdanKoncar, 2000
Designing with Smart Textiles by Sarah Kettley, 2003
Smart Textiles for Protection by RM Chapman , 2013
Handbook of Smart Textiles by Xiaoming Tao, 2006