

One Day Conference on Gravitation and Cosmology

NOVEMBER 26, 2016

Celebrating 70th Birthday of Prof. Dr. Asghar Qadir

The Group of Gravitation and Cosmology, Department of Mathematics, University of the Punjab, Lahore (<http://ggc.pu.edu.pk>) is organizing a one day conference in the honor of Prof. Dr. Asghar Qadir (Hilal-e-Imtiaz & Sitara-e-Imtiaz) who has made significant contributions to the field of mathematical physics. He is a pioneer in introducing the subject of relativity in Pakistan. Prof. Dr. Asghar Qadir is a mentor of Pakistani scientists who has inspired generations of researchers by developing numerous research collaborations with well-known physicists and mathematicians. He has received several national and international meritorious awards. We are privileged to pay a tribute for his outstanding services in theoretical physics since 1971. This conference is an excellent opportunity for researchers to exchange their ideas with Prof. Dr. Asghar Qadir and others. The conference will be held on November 26, 2016 at University of the Punjab, Quaid-e-Azam campus situated in the downtown, Lahore, spread over 1800 acres of lush green landscape. The program includes technical as well as non-technical talks. Registration form is available at <http://ggc.pu.edu.pk/Seminars.html>
