ABOUT ME

A seasoned legal academician with extensive experience of teaching and researching across multiple institutions, currently serving at Punjab University. I bring a versatile skill set to the working environment. Adept at engaging students through dynamic legal education, successfully served as a Social Media Focal Person, leveraging digital platforms to enhance institutional outreach and communication. With expertise as a Mooter, Adjudicator and Coach, I have actively contributed to numerous national and international competitions, fostering advocacy skills of students and preparing them for future legal careers. Passionate about blending traditional legal education with modern communication strategies, I am committed to contributing to both academic and extracurricular development in the legal field.
